DU correspondents assaulted by police

By DU Correspondent Two Dhaka University correspondents were allegedly assaulted by police near Bangabhaban yesterday noon.

Police beat up and tore the shirt of Nurul Karim Bhuiyan of The Dainik Banglar Bani and Khademul Islam Ridoy of The Independent inside a requisitioned bus and threatened to lock them up at the Rajarbagh at around 12:00 noon.

Later, they were taken to a police box at the first gate of Bangabhaban and were released when they disclosed their identity to two officers - Kashem and Saveed.

According to the victim, po-lice picked them at the bus by holding collar of shirt as Karim asked the driver not to drive recklessly. Two police constables Monjur and Sayeedur started beating, hurling abuses on them even after disclosing their press identity.

Earlier, the speedy bus commandeered by police hit two persons which left an old man injured before the two correspondents. Meanwhile, the Dhaka Uni-tion (DUJA) strongly condemned the incident. In a statement, Abul Kalam Azad and Mamun-or-Rashid, president and general secretary of DUJA demanded exemplary
