Neelima Ibrahim sick

Noted litterateur and educationist Dr Neelima Ibrahim is sick and under treatment in National Institute of Cardiac Diseases and Hospital in the city, reports UNB.

Neelima Ibrahim who was shifted to the hospital from Comilla Combined Military Hospital has been suffering from various old-age ailments. She is now in the Intensive Care Unit of the hospital.

Also President of Family Planning Association of Bangladesh (FPAB), Neelima got sick in Comilla while attending a workshop on family planning issue.

Local Government Minister Zillur Rahman visited the hospital to see for himself the ailing educationist yesterday and stayed there for some time.

He talked with her and inquired about her treatment. The minister also prayed to the Almighty Allah for her early recovery.

Meanwhile, Director General of FPAB Dr Ahmed Naiz, sought doz from all for her recovery.

Dinajpur AL team meets PM

A delegation of leaders and workers of Bangladesh Awami League Dinajpur district chapter and Goraghat thana yesterday met Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her office, reports BSS.

Former parliament member and Dinajpur AL president Advocate Amjad Hossain and general secretary Mostafizur Rahman Fizar, MP, led the delegation.

The Prime Minister asked them to gear up the party activities in their respective areas and project different socio-economic development programmes taken by the government.
