Hasina invited to attend South Summit in Havana

Cuban President's special envoy Alberto Velazco San Jose here called on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday and handed over to her an invitation letter of President Fidel Castro to attend the South Summit in Havana in April, reports UNB.

Hasina said she would consider the invitation. Earlier, the envoy called on Foreign Minister Abdus Samad Azad at his office and discussed with him the agenda and preparation of the first ever South Summit of the G-77 representing 133 countries.

He said the 5-day summit beginning April 10 would dis-

Book presented to Shahabuddin

A book titled "Swadhinatar Swapna-Unmesh and Arjan" was presented to President Shahabuddin Ahmed at Bangabhaban yesterday, reports UNB.

The book was written by Abdul Aziz Bagmar, a leading organiser of the liberation war and general secretary of Apurba Sangsad.

President Shahabuddin said this book would help the readers know more about the country's glorious history of independence.

Dr Khandaker Bazul Haq, member of Bangladesh Public Service Commission, and Prof Shanti Narayan Ghosh of Dhaka University were present on the occasion.

cuss problems facing the G-77. North-South economic cooperation and impact of globalisation on its member states.

He said Bangladesh's presence in the summit is very important for Cuba as Bangladesh traditionally plays very active role in NAM and G-77. He hoped that Bangladesh would play a significant role in the South Summit in Havana.

During the five-day summit, senior officials will meet on April 10, Foreign Ministers on April 11 and Heads of Government or State on April 12-14.

NDC team visits Jatiya Press Club

Members of the second batch of National Defence College (NDC) yesterday visited the Jatiya Press Club (JPC) as part of their curricula, reports BSS.

Press Club President Khondokar Monirul Alam received the guests at the club while General Secretary Swapna Kumar Saha gave vote of thanks. Senior members of the club were present on the occasion.

Brigadier Dick Limbe, senior directing staff and member of British Defence Advisory team presented a crest of NDC to JPC. JPC president also presented them with a crest of the club.

Medical board formed for ailing state minister

The condition of ailing State Minister for Housing and Public Works Dr Muhammad Alauddin, now undergoing treatment at the Combined Military Hospital (CMH), deteriorated yesterday, reports UNB.

The government has formed a high-profile medical board for his proper treatment.

Housing and Public Works Minister Eng Mosharraf Hossain, State Minister for Women and Children Affairs Prof Zinnatunnesa Talukder and high officials visited the hospital to see the ailing minister.

Dr Alauddin has sought blessings of the countrymen for his early recovery.
