By Shantanum bitka & Angel cum bitka

I went to Hallmark the other day and I actually saw this card saying "Honey, I love you and everything, you're the one for me, I need you I want you... (page turn) BUT I THINK WE'RE BETTER APART!" Can you believe it?? And it was in the Valentine's section too. The world's gotten to be such a mean place. I mean come-on, chakras on V'day?

As cupid it should be my right to stop these meanies. The problem is, kids today are so thick-skinned, that not even my arrows affect them. Back in the 16th century I didn't even need to use my arrows, a thorn or two would do the job. I know this has nothing to do with the article but for heaven's sake why can't someone give me something to cover my back...

By the way, I am NOT the angelic 'pucci' you see in the cartoons. Well, in case you didn't know, V'day is my birthday (no wonder so many people get together that day.) But believe me, for the past two years, nothing has been working out, in this stupid, loveless city. The soul of St. Valentine is haunting me, I mean REALLY HAUNTING ME.

Love sells... love songs sell; love movies sell, everything concerning love sells. I mean, love is still a "hip trend", but it's not in the air, no one's in love. At least no two people are. Not only that, even 'dostos' are hitting on each other, and believe me; it flames my buttocks to a crimson red to say it. Whatever happened to decency? But who am I to say that? Lady Cupid (the Devil... yeah I know she's older) and I have numerous children of our own, we've been going out for 20,000 years but we're not even married. Anyway that's not my point, my point is LOVE. Look at all the teens mourning in black. I've actually seen these Greenheraldans moping around in black badges on V'day

(though it was for some other very sad reason) I can't even cause some REAL mischief anymore. Oops, I think that was a confession. What is LOVE you ask? It's a very contagious disease; here are the symptoms & aftermath though it may vary from person to person. Well, here goes, Love is:-

- My life... (Well like uh...)
- A green-eyed monster called jealousy
- When passing a high rise, it seems like a lover's leap
- When you think of the one and smile
- When you only want to cry on his/her shoulder
- When you become a slave to his/her moods and orders
- You reject it, or it passes by
- Definitely going to visit you at least twice
- When you're depressed at a great party
- The spice and color in your life

LOVE IS YOUR LIFE!!! (Remember that Juliet fell for Romeo when she was barely fourteen!)

Now you know what you're doing.... turning me into a workaholic! I'm even having fights with my darl... er... devil. Nothing works anymore and I spend a week after each pair, but in vain. I hope all of you who have read this article, decide to help me. My life, my career, everything is at stake. I know V'day is over, but do me a favor, Go smooth your heartbroken admirer, and ask for forgiveness, do the same with your ex if you really miss him/her and just be COOL. Okie, Dokie? Coz if you don't, then in the coming decade, there will be no love, V'day or worst of all... ME!!!

P.S. Thumbs up to all the people out there with successful relationships.

WRITER'S NOTE:- we beg forgiveness from the Devil, St Valentine & the Cupid.... no offence was meant.

Internet Plugins

By Monzur Morshed <ICQ - 28500150>

We use browsers to surf the web. But, to get the most out of modern webpages, you need some essential plugins for your browsers. Each plugin has its own speciality. Too much plugins will slow down the speed of your browser. So, only pick the best. Here are the best plugins of all:-

1) Quicktime Plugin - QT Plugin is one of the most popular (and old tool) plugins invented. Because, it can be found in almost every multimedia cdrom. With this plugin, you'll be able to play .mov, .wav, .mid and some other files in Netscape or IE.

2) Shockwave Plugin - Shockwave can be called the new generation plugin. Now-a-days, all popular websites use Shockwave files (Like : EA, Sega, Macromedia, Popular artists). Shockwave Plugin lets you play movies, games, music or navigation menus which are in different extensions :- .swf, .dvr, .spl, .dcr, .dir.

3) Viscycle Plugin - This plugin is not so popular like the first 2. Because, it is only required to view .VRML files (Virtual Reality). So, you don't need it very much.

4) Realaudio Plugin - Realaudio is the most popular media file in the net because of its size and average quality. With this plugin you can view Realaudio & RealVideo (.rm, .ram and .ra files).

How to get the plugins = If you don't QT Plugins in CD, then try downloading it from www.quicktime.com. Realaudio Plugins are automatically installed with RealPlayer G2 or RP7. Download it from www.real.com. Get Shockwave Plugin from www.macromedia.com. Viscycle Plugin can be obtained from www.superscape.com.
