Tributes to a Cultural Giant

Mamunur Rashid Retrospective ends

By Muneera Parbeen

DRAMATISTS in the country were in for a rare treat this past week. The just concluded Mamunur Rashid Retrospective brought together some of the best works of the renowned playwright, dramatist and actor at the Mahila Samity auditorium at Bailey Road that concluded last night.

Aranyak Natya Dal arranged the six day long affair that featured six dramas by the playwright. On the first day of the retrospective, the much acclaimed drama 'Ol' ashay' was staged at the auditorium. Joy Jyoti, both written and directed by Rashid was staged on the 2nd day of the festival.

One of the most eventful days in the six-day event was the celebration of Mamunur Rashid on February 29, incidentally, the extra day of the Leap year! A reception was accorded to him by Aranyak Natya Dal, the theatre group that the playwright himself founded and helped to flourish. Fifty-two lighted candles lined the two sides of the auditorium and an endless line of flower baskets and bouquets brought by fans greeted the artists.

Acting in his own plays

Speakers at the reception said that there is need for more talented and dedicated personalities like Mamunur Rashid to help take the theatre movement in Bangladesh forward. They said that he is one of the few playwrights in the country who has depicted communal harmony in his various works. His name will always come up in the first ranks whenever the history of the theatre movement in the country is talked of, they said.

Different theatres and organisations who greeted him with flowers on the stage included Group Theatre Federation, Nagorik Natya Sampradaya, Dhaka Theatre, Mahila Samity, Nagorik Natya Dal, Binodan Bichitra, Rangamatya Jhum Natya Sampradaya, Lok Natya dal, Bangla Telefilm Khe-lagar, Udichi, Desh Natok among others.

Poet Nirmelundi Gun, TV actor Aly Zaker, Jamaluddin Hossain, Liakat Ali lucky, Dr Enamul Haque, Asaduzzaman Noor, Sara Zaker were among those who spoke on him at the function.

The drama staged on this day by Bangla theatre artists was 'Manush'.

The other three dramas staged at the programme were 'Rashtr bonam', 'Iblish' and 'Ora Kadam Ali'.

Mamunur Rashid has reigned in the cultural arena of our country with his multi-faceted talents for quite a long time now. Dedicated artists like him come far and few between. It looks like a good omen that the new millennium has begun with such a rightful tribute paid to an artist of such calibre.
