1000 doctors to be recruited

Health and Family Welfare Minister Sheikh Fazlul Karim Selim yesterday called upon the deputy commissioners to provide all-out cooperation for the successful implementation of EPI and family planning programmes involving common people in these activities, reports BSS.

He was addressing a conference of the deputy commissioners at the Cabinet Ministry here.

The health minister said that the government is trying with firm commitment and utmost sincerity to reach improved healthcare to doorsteps of the people with a view to achieve this objective. The government has taken up a number of steps for the development of health infrastructure at all levels, he added.

Referring to different steps initiated by the present government, Selim said the health ministry has been upgrading the hospitals increasing number of beds including installation of modern equipment like spiral CT scan, cancer machine and X-ray machines.

The minister told the conference that the government has set up referred words in all medical college hospitals including all specialised hospitals in the country too ensuring better treatment of patients.

Selim said the government has completed all process to recruit another 1000 new doctors and build 1500 doctors' quarters in thana and district levels for providing their residential facilities.

He said the government is planning to set up more trauma centres on the highways for accident victims and establish emergency wards in all hospitals including Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University.

He said the government has also given due emphasis on the need for reducing mother and child mortality rate and is working with dedication in this regards.

The health minister informed the conference that the arsenic problem has spread in 59 out of 64 districts and urged the deputy commissioners to create public awareness about the dreadful disease.

World Book Day observed

Scores of children from different parts of the capital yesterday participated in kaleidoscopic programmes organised by Young Learner's Centre at Fuller Road in the city to celebrate World Book Day, reports BSS.

Executives of the British Council said the theme of this year's programme was encouraging reading and writing among the children.

Apart from the members of the Centre, at least 80 children from five local NGOs (UCEP, BRAC, Aporajeyo Bangladesh, Proshika and Chinnomul Shishu Kishore Sangstha) participated in the recitation and art competition, they said.
