Australian Development Scholarships (ADS) - 2001 Intake

Open Category

As part of the Australian Government's ongoing commitment to human resource development in Bangladesh, the Australian Agency for International Development is pleased to invite applications from private individuals for study in Australia in 2001. (Government officers are considered under the Public category and should direct their enquiries to F & F Division, Economic Relations Division, Blk 16, Sher-e-Bangla Nagar, Dhaka.) Before deciding to apply candidates should take note of the following conditions and requirements:

1. Awards are offered for study at Masters level only in the fields of Agricultural Science (including Farm Management), Business Administration, Computer Science, Development Economics, Education, Environmental Studies and Public Health. In addition Teaching English as a Second Language (TESOL) is offered at Diploma level.
2. Candidates applying for Business Administration must have two years relevant work experience. All candidates must:
  - be less than 40 years old on 1 January 2001;
  - have completed a minimum of four years of tertiary level studies with;
    - i) no third class results in any examination for tribal (targeted) applicants; and
    - ii) first class results in all examinations for all other (untargeted) applicants.
  - nominate a field of study relevant to their current employment.
3. All awardees are required to commence their studies in January 2001. Deferrals will not be granted. Please also note that dependents will only be allowed to join awardees in Australia six weeks after commencement of studies.
4. Preference will be given to candidates who have not previously undertaken post-graduate studies abroad.
5. Fifty percent of all scholarships will be reserved for female candidates. In addition targeted scholarships will be available for female and male candidates of tribal descent.
6. Candidates fulfilling these conditions must submit a written application in English on plain paper along with bio-data and one passport size photograph. Bio-data must contain (a) name; (b) date of birth; (c) present address and telephone number; (d) permanent address and telephone number; (e) employment history; (f) educational qualifications including (i) name of examination, (ii) Board / University, (iii) year of graduation, (iv) Division/Class, (v) total marks with percentages; and (g) name of two referees. Copies of all certificates and marksheets (duly attested) must be attached. MBBS doctors should attach marksheets of all professional exams and internship completion reports. Applicants of tribal descent must submit a certificate of tribal descent duly signed by the respective Deputy Commissioner. Applicants may select only one field of study and must submit a statement (preferably typewritten) stating why they have selected this field of study and how the proposed course of study will benefit them on return to Bangladesh. Applications and attachments will not be returned.
7. All applicants should provide documentation on A4 size paper and clearly indicate the name and position of the person who has certified the records. Applications with incomplete documentation, faulty or false information will be rejected.
8. Short-listed candidates must sit an IELTS test during May. Applicants who are not available to sit for the test on the nominated date, or who cannot be contacted, will be disqualified. Candidates must obtain a minimum overall IELTS score of 6.5. Intending candidates are strongly encouraged to prepare themselves in advance for this test.
9. Applications should be sent to the First Secretary (Development Assistance), Australian High Commission, 184 Gulshan Avenue, Dhaka. Applicants must specify the category and the subject applied for on top of the bio-data sheets as well as on the envelope containing the application. The deadline for submission of applications is 6 April 2000. Any application received after 3:45 PM on this date will not be considered. Only successful applicants will be advised of the outcomes of the selection process. All decisions are final. No calls or correspondence will be entertained regarding the status of applications.
