TOWA benefit of better business control

Some of the most important projects we handle have nothing to do
with cement.

Conservation of wildlife and natural areas.

A nature foundation in Colombia, a Humpback Whale sanctuary in the Dominican Republic. These are a few of the most important projects supported by us. And because Cemex considers the ecological balance of our planet fundamental, it is actively involved in almost 40 environmental conservation projects in ten countries around the world. With its entry into Bangladesh, you too can expect the same standards applicable anywhere in the world. Because at Cemex, safety is of the utmost importance. For its personnel, the community and the environment.
