Monday Comedy: Houseguest

Apr 03 at 10:00 PM on Star Movies
Starring Sinbad, Phil Hartman, Jeffrey Jones and Kim Greist
Popular comedian Sinbad stars as pie-in-the-sky optimist Kevin Franklin, a would-be entrepreneur obsessed with a quest for riches but whose ideas always fizzle into a disaster. Hounded by loan sharks when his latest fortune-hunting scheme goes awry, Kevin makes an escape by using his winning personality and entrepreneurial skills to convince ultra-conservative lawyer Gary Young and his family that he's their expected weekend houseguest.

QUEST

Reading and Writing in the Academic World

Author: Pamela Hartmann/Laurie Blass
Publisher: McGraw-Hill International Editions
Price: Tk 270.00

The three Reading and Writing books combine high interest material from newspapers and magazines with traditional academic source material such as textbooks. Reading passages increase in length and difficulty across the three levels. Additional features include: a consistent 5-part chapter structure that builds in difficulty and blends reading and writing skills within the context of a particular academic area; reading and writing strategy boxes to better prepare students for academic life outside of the ESOL classroom; grammatical, lexical, and punctuation support presented in easy-to-read boxes; a chapter-cumulating writing assignment that is based on the reading themes and incorporates the writing mechanics that students have practiced.

FORLORN MIGRANTS

Author: Syed Refaat Ahmed
Publisher: The University Press Limited
Price: Tk 540.00

This book proposes an international legal regime on undocumented labor migration aimed at ensuring equitable, humane and lawful conditions of migration as well as protecting the rights of undocumented migrant workers. In this regard the book analyzes the 1990 UN Convention on the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families. Also examined is the extent to which this Convention provides for components of regime creation, such as state responsibility, state accountability and the balance of interests, and the manner in which the Convention's deficiencies may be overcome.

THE CONSTRUCTION OF DIASPORA

Author: Imtiaz Ahmed
Publisher: The University Press Limited
Price: Tk 360.00

Population movement has now become a central issue in international relations. This has led to a closer examination of not only the reasons for international migration but also of the varied and mixed experiences of the migrants in receiving state. A particular focus of such examination has been to understand the process through which international migration transforms itself into a Diaspora.
