Nothing serious with Waugh

HAMILTON, New Zealand, Apr 3: Australian captain Steve Waugh was cleared of serious injury late Monday after retiring hurt on the final day of the third cricket Test against New Zealand here, reports AFP.

Barisal cricket

BARISAL, Apr 3: Kheloar Kalyan Samity outplayed Sher-e-Bangla Sabuj Sangha by 275 runs while Nabajagan Club defeated New Picnic Point Club by 187 runs in the First Division Cricket League here at the Abdur Rab Serniabat Stadium today.

Rajshahi cricket

Winning the toss, the winners collected 221 runs for nine wickets in the stipulated 40 overs. In reply, the losers went all out scoring 220 runs in 34.5 overs.

Div II cricket

Opening batsmen Sherwin Campbell and Philo Wallace shared 53 for the first wicket in 11.5 overs, but perished in the space of 22 balls to fast-medium bowler Gary Brent, whose two for 34 from eight overs made him the most successful Zimbabwe bowler.

School cricket

West Indies started to turn the screws when Hinds and captain Jimmy Adams added 95 for the third wicket off 122 balls.

Siraj Smriti Cricket

Adams, however, was run out for the second successive time when he failed to beat Stuart Carlisle's direct hit at the wicketkeeper's end from mid-wicket in the 36th over going for a cheeky single.

Nothing serious with Waugh

Waugh looked in pain but he batted on before he was forced to leave the field, throwing in doubt his chances of leading Australia in South Africa. (Physiotherapist) Pat Farhart dragged me off and I thought we were pretty safe at that stage," he said.

Barisal cricket

Kheloar Kalyan made 334 losing five wickets in 40 overs. Was adjudged man-of-the-match for his superb 162. In reply, Sher-e-Bangla Sabuj Sangha collected only 59 runs losing all the wickets in 15 overs.

Barisal cricket

Manir grabbed 6 wickets giving only 9 runs. In the other match of the day, Nabajagan scored 252 losing 6 wickets in 37 overs.

Barisal cricket

Milon was adjudged man-of-the-match for his allround show.

Steve speaks highly of Justin

HAMILTON, New Zealand, Apr 3: Victorious Australian skipper Steve Waugh Monday acclaimed Justin Langer as the best batsman in the world on his current form, reports AFP.

Steve speaks highly of Justin

At the moment -- today -- he is the best batsman in the world." His seventh Test century featured 19 boundaries and capped a gutsy season from the No. 3 batsman.

Steve speaks highly of Justin

That's why he's had such great success as a captain because he puts such faith in his players. "And it's probably a confidence thing. If you're not rewarded by playing Test cricket, and that becomes better with experience, and it's a matter of sticking to what you do best."

Agassi leads ATP Champions Race

PARIS, Apr 3: Pete Sampras gained five places in the ATP Champions Race by winning the high-ranking Miami Masters Series on Sunday and trails only fellow American Andre Agassi and Russian Yevgeny Kafelnikov, reports AFP.

Ericsson Open Sampras

MIAMI, Florida, Apr 3: Pete Sampras survived a gallant effort by Gustavo Kuerten Sunday, finally subduing the Brazilian on his seventh match point to win the $7.25 million-dollar Ericsson Open, his first title of the year, reports AFP.

Ericsson Open Sampras

Sampras had to save two set points in the 12th game of the fourth to get to the tiebreaker. He rolled to a 6-2 lead, but lost all four match points, three with forehand errors and one with a backhand wide.

Ericsson Open Sampras

Sampras couldn't take advantage of Kuerten's discomfiture, doublefaulting to let the Brazilian level again at 7-7. Sampras wasted one more match point with a backhand long, then he nailed a volley to give himself another at 9/8 in the tiebreaker.

Ericsson Open Sampras

Kuerten's forehand clipped the tape and went just long to give Sampras his 61st career victory and the 410,000-dollar first prize. "It was really tough and could have gone either way," Sampras said. "No doubt he is not any more just a one surface player. He can play well everywhere. I got a little lucky. I'm encouraged. To win a tournament of this magnitude, with everyone playing, it's a Grand Slam feeling."

Philippoussis sustained his leg injury two weeks ago in Indian Wells, California, and has not responded to treatment since returning to Australia. "It's unfortunate that Mark can't be here but we have to think long term, and it's important not to put him at risk this weekend," said Australian Davis Cup captain John Newcombe.

Australia extend it to 10

HAMILTON, New Zealand, Apr 3: Australia wrapped up a series clean sweep and won their 10th consecutive Test match with a six-wicket victory over New Zealand in the third Test here Monday, reports AFP.

Steve Waugh's Australians needed just an hour's play on the fourth day to seal the victory with Justin Langer scoring his seventh Test century to remain 122 not out off 122 balls in Australia's 212 for four.

Monday's triumph followed victories by 62 runs and six wickets in the opening two Tests of the series in Auckland and Wellington. Wicketkeeper Adam Gilchrist, who set an Australian record of 10 dismissals for the match and hit a match-turning 75 in the first innings, was named man-of-the-match.

Langer scored the third fastest century by an Australian off just 102 balls, ranking behind Jack Gregory and Ray Lindwall. There was another contentious lbw dismissal by Damien Martyn given out for four by New Zealand umpire Steve Dunne, even though he was struck high on the pad and was well down the pitch.
