MESSAGE

I am glad to hear that Rotary International Presidential Conference is going to be held at Dhaka on 7-9 April, 2000. I am told that this is the first Conference of its kind in Bangladesh. I thank Mr. M. Ozair Farooq, Governor, Rotary International, District - 3280 Bangladesh and his colleagues for arranging and organising this prestigious Conference in our country. I am equally delighted to see that the theme of the Conference is "Improving the quality of life in the new Century". Needless to say that the subject is very important. Bringing about improvements in the fields of education of children and women, health care is, of course, of prime importance for a given society as well as for the citizens of the world. Rotarians are citizens of the world, and I am confident that their deliberations on this important subject will be of help not only for Bangladesh but also for the suffering humanity at large.

I wish this International Conference a great success and godspeed.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL
PRESIDENTIAL CONFERENCE - 2000
(7th - 9th April, 2000)

President, 1999-2000, Rotary International

MESSAGE

To the Presidential Conference 2000

To my Fellow Rotarians,

Please accept my warm greetings and sincere gratitude as we gather to celebrate this Presidential Conference 2000 in Bangladesh. I know that each of us support the work of Rotarians in Asia as well as the rest of the Rotary world. Thank you for what each of you has done to support this effort.

Rotary, around the world, is most viable because of we, as individual Rotarians, partake in local and international projects and activities through Rotary International and its Foundation. We know that we are connected as we celebrate the joy of Rotary in "Service Above Self".

Best wishes to you for the future as we know that through our endeavors all Rotarians will in Rotary 2000, Act with Consistency, Credibility, Continuity.

Sincerely,

Carlo Ravizza,

April 2000,

Chairman
Presidential Conference 2000

MESSAGE

Welcome

It is my special privilege and pleasure to welcome you to the Presidential Conference 2000 in Dhaka. I want to thank you for your presence at this very special Rotary event.

Under the inspiration of our founder Paul Harris and the leadership of President Carlo Ravizza, we are engaged in strengthening Rotary by acting with Consistency, Credibility and Continuity. This Conference affords us an opportunity to celebrate marvelous internationality of Rotary.

President Carlo Ravizza has set forth the challenges we face in order to accomplish Rotary's mission of creating a better world by "Improving the Quality of Life in the 21st Century." Under his guidance, Rotarians worldwide have accepted the formidable task of doing tough jobs. Subjects for discussion in the Conference, have, therefore, been chosen carefully and thoughtfully.

Rotarians of Bangladesh are happy that Bangladesh has been chosen as the venue of the Conference. I am certain that even though we have limited resources, the participation of Rotarians of different countries would make the Conference memorable and meaningful.

With humility and sincerity, I greet you to this Conference, where hope and promise will blossom.
