Glory of The Red And Green

Screening of a TV drama

By Nazmul Ashraf

THE dignity of our national flag is often marred by its misuse. The abuse occurs in terms of violation of the flag rules. Keeping the flag hoisted after sun set or hoisting defective flags is a very common malpractice in our country.

as well as directed by himself, Rahman, also attempts to educate people, specially the younger generation about the nation's struggle to achieve the flag. A special screening of the drama was held at the Democracy Watch auditorium in the city recently.

Selim Mahub, Tazin Ahmed and Raisul Islam Asad in a scene from the drama Pataka

his noble gesture. His wife, relatives and neighbours press him to give up selling flags. He even refuses offers for better occupation which would have helped him get his only daughter married to a well-off family for his love and devotion to the national flag.

ter married to a well-off family for his love and devotion to the national flag. The academically illiterate Omar also teaches kids at an open school the history behind the flag and its use.

to the country's struggle for independence. I always enjoy the role of a freedom fighter. Commenting on the drama, Asad adds, "There should have been a film on the theme. Frequent screening of such a film could have created a wider impact in the society.
