All 24 aboard killed in DRC plane crash

KIGALI, Apr 21: All 24 people aboard an Antonov-8 airplane were killed when it exploded shortly after takeoff in the rebel-controlled southeastern Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), a Rwandan army spokesman told AFP here Thursday. The crash happened Wednesday shortly after the plane took off from Pepa Airport in the south of Katanga province.

Accident investigators blamed the crash on a bird which flew into one of the engines, according to the spokesman, Major Emmanuel Nadhiro, whose army is supporting the rebel effort to topple

President Laurent Kabila. "When it was taking off, a bird hit one of the engines, the pilot tried to come back but couldn't manage to maintain it. The plane fell on the strip and blew up with all the fuel," Nadhiro said.
