Injunction on elections of journalists' housing society

The First Assistant Judge court of Dhaka yesterday imposed an ad-interim injunction on the election of the managing committee of the 'Dhaka Sangbadh Griha Sangsthan Samabaya Samity Ltd.', a housing society of the journalists, reports BSS.

The election was scheduled for today.

Judge Mizanur Rahman delivered the judgement after hearing a fresh petition submitted by Ziaul Haque and four other members of the society praying for an injunction on the election.

The judge also fixed May 2 for hearing the injunction.

Earlier on Wednesday, the same court issued show cause notices on chairman of the election committee Mofakkarul Anam along with two members of the committee and president of the adhoc committee Ruhul Amin Gazi and eight others as to why they shall not be restrained from the election.

The judge issued the notices following a petition filed by Ziaul Haque and four other members claiming the election procedures illegal and unconstitutional.

Advocate Shamsuddin Babul, Advocate Nurul Islam Mollah, Advocate Habibur Rahman, Advocate Nazrul Islam Khan, Advocate Pranesh Chandra Mondal and Advocate Jamal Uddin Moved for the plaintiffs.
