Construction of NAM confce centre in progress

Foreign Minister Abdus Samad Azad who visited the construction site of Bangabandhu International Conference Centre yesterday said the government will complete the project on priority basis before the NAM summit, reports UNB.

The Centre is being built with the assistance of the Chinese government for the NAM summit to be held in the second half of 2001.

The construction work began in March and substantial progress was made in laying the foundation and structure of the Centre in last 50 days.

Some 800 skilled and unskilled labourers, including 100 from China, are working round-the-clock to complete the project.

The Foreign Minister said construction of the conference centre would further strengthen bilateral relations between Bangladesh and China.

Chinese Ambassador to Bangladesh Wang Chungui, who accompanied the minister, hoped that it would be possible to construct a magnificent conference centre in Dhaka with cooperation from all.

Foreign Secretary CM Shaif Sami and Works Secretary Sohel Ahmed were also present.

Short Film Festival from May 4

TANGAIL, Apr 29: The Third National Short Film Festival will be held at Bhasani Hall here under the auspices of Bangladesh Short Film Forum, reports BSS.

Sixteen millimetre documentary films and video formats will be shown in the 3-day festival beginning May 4.

A committee headed by Tangail Pourasabha Chairman Jamilur Rahman Miran has been formed for the successful holding of the festival.

UK Immigration Advisory Service to open branch in Sylhet

SYLHET, Apr 29: The United Kingdom Immigration Advisory Service (IAS) is going to set up a branch in Sylhet soon. It will be the first branch outside the UK, reports UNB.

Sources said preparation in this regard has already been completed. The branch office will be located at Jindabazar and it is likely to open on July 7.

IAS-Sylhet will provide all cooperation and free legal advice to the people intended to go to the UK. British High Commission and IAS will work together keeping close contact with each other to avoid any harassment to the England-bound passengers.

The sources said IAS central office has already created the post of Immigration Advisor and it will monitor the activities of Sylhet office through internet.
