Pathan Para champions

From Our Correspondent
RAJSHAHI, May 10: Pathan Para Jubo Sangha lifted the AB Bank Siraj Memorial cricket trophy defeating Cricket Academy by 28 runs at the Nwabganj Stadium today.
Batting first, Pathan Para scored 151 all out in 35 overs with Shamsul notching highest 28 runs.
In reply, Cricket Academy could manage only 123 before being bundled out in 32.4 overs. Mohiuddin scored highest 35 for the vanquished. Kool captured three wickets giving away 13 runs. He was later adjudged man-of-the-final.
Shafiq Uddin, the senior vice-president of the sponsors AB Bank, witnessed the final and gave away prizes.

Shoaib faces fitness test

GEORGETOWN, Guyana, May 10 (Reuters): Pakistan fast bowler Shoaib Akhtar aims to prove his fitness for the second Test against West Indies when he plays in a four-day match starting in Bridgetown, Barbados, on Friday.
Shoaib missed the rain-ruined first test which ended in a draw here on Tuesday after pulling a side muscle.
Pakistan captain Moin Khan said they would include Shoaib in the side to face the West Indies A team at Kensington Oval.
"We will see if his fitness allows him to play in the second Test match," Moin said. "It depends on him as well. If he feels confident, then definitely he will play."
The Pakistan skipper also said opener Saeed Anwar would be arriving in the Caribbean within the next 48 hours, following knee surgery in England, and would probably play against the West Indies A side.

Kalabagan set up a thriller

Sports Reporter

Kalabagan Kriya Chakra set the stage for a fitting finale to this year's Janakantha Premier Division cricket League when they defeated Mohammedan Sporting Club on better run-rate at the Bangabandhu National Stadium yesterday.

The victory for Kalabagan in their penultimate League match changed the complexion of the title race which had looked Abahani's for the taking only a week earlier. Hot on the heels of successive defeats, Abahani now faces a realistic challenge from Kalabagan when the two Dharmondi neighbors lock horns in the championship deciding match on May 15.

Abahani however, are still favourites as they lead Kalabagan by two points and have a superior net run rate. Kalabagan on the other hand have the difficult task of winning by a substantial margin and thus topple Abahani on net run rate.

In the match, Kalabagan needed a superb unbeaten 74 from their middle-order batsman Mushfiqur Rahman to stymie a rejuvenated Mohammedan.

Mohammedan threw a caution to the wind when they piled up a fighting 225 for nine in the stipulated 50 overs after winning the toss and then had Kalabagan reeling on 48 for three in 8.5 overs.
But a cool and collected Mushfiq lifted Kalabagan out of the hole. Kalabagan were cruising on 196 for four in 43 overs when the umpires called off the game due to bad light. Kalabagan were then awarded the match as their score was better than that of Mohammedan's who were 180 for four at a similar stage.
Mushfiq showed commendable maturity as he led the recovery operation with Rajin

Saleh after Mohammedan's young right-arm seamer Shamsul Arefin had given Kalabagan a real scare by claiming two wickets including the prized scalp of Pakistani Sellim Elahi.

Salim Elahi, the Kalabagan run-machine, was on only 13 when Arefin trapped him lbw. The decision surprised the spectators as well as the bowler because the umpire raised his dreaded finger without any appeal from the fielders.

Right hander Rajin played a vital 47-ball 30 with three sweetly timed fours before being run out while attempting a sharp single following a misfield at mid-off. Rajin had featured in a 54-run partnership

Procter truly pleased

Sports Reporter

Former South African Test great Mike Procter thinks the next generation of Bangladesh cricket would perform much better than the present national team because of their immense talent. What they need is a little more exposure.

Procter, who arrived in the capital last Saturday as an International Cricket Council (ICC) Ambassador to impart training to local fast bowlers under the ICC's development programme, opined this at a press conference yesterday. The legendary former cricketer coached 14 BCB-selected bowlers and the students of Bangladesh Kriya Shiksha Prosthana (BKSP) for last three days.

"I worked with lot of kids of different age-group and they have impressed me. What I have seen at the BKSP is the set-up which is fantastic. Even we don't have such unique institution in South Africa," said a visibly pleased Procter.

"About the kids, I can honestly say that the under-13 and under-15, they are exceptional. The way they bat and bowl is amazing. To my opinion, the under-15 team of BKSP is better than the South Africa under-15 team."

"The number of young cricketers in BKSP and their passion for cricket is very, very encouraging for Bangladesh and if this trend continues, Bangladesh have a bright future ahead," said Procter, who is on his second visit in Bangladesh. Procter first came in Dhaka last month as TV commentator for the exhibition match between Asia and Rest of the World.

Procter said that the only problem he saw among the bowlers was their pre-occupation with limited-over games.
"They need to understand the difference between bowling in one-day cricket and longer version. This is a common problem everywhere in the world. Even Shaun Pollock or Allan Donald also faces the same problem. I think they will soon grow up an idea about longer version of the game," Procter said.

He revealed that as a coach he believes in exploiting natural ability than going for any other tactics to win a match.
"What Woolmer does is very technical and complicated thing. It may be fruitful in the end but I'm not in favour of that," he said.

His parting message for the young cricketers of the country was 'keep on working and trying hard to establish yourselves in the international cricket.'

About the prospect of Bangladesh Test status, Procter said that he would make a strong recommendation in this regard.

"Bangladesh must get full Test status. I will recommend in my capacity as ICC ambassador," added Procter, who is due to leave the city tonight.
When asked about any problem he faced during his coaching on Bangladeshi bowlers,

Maldives tourney Sri Lanka emerge champions

Sports Reporter

Sri Lanka won the four-nation Golden Jubilee international football tournament after defeating hosts Maldives in a sudden death penalty shoot out in the final at the National Stadium in Male yesterday.

The match was locked 1-1 in the regulation 90 minutes and 30 minutes of extra time. The teams were tied 4-4 in the tie-breaker before the Lankans scored the sudden death penalty.

With yesterday's win, Sri Lanka completed their week-long impressive run in the tournament.

In the first round, Sri Lanka beat Bangladesh and India by solitary goals and drew with Maldives 1-1.

Saber off to down under

Sports Reporter

President of Bangladesh Cricket Board (BCB) Saber Hossain Chowdhury left in Dhaka early Wednesday on a week-long trip to Australia and New Zealand to gain support for Bangladesh's bid for Test status, reports BSS.

The BCB president, at the invitation of the Chairman of Australian Cricket Board (ACB) Denis Rogers, will visit Australia from May 11-12. He will make a presentation about Bangladesh cricket to the ACB board of directors in their meeting at Ayers Rock.

Saber, thereafter, will proceed to New Zealand capital Wellington, where he is scheduled to meet and have discussions with Sir John Anderson and Chris Doig, chairman and managing director of New Zealand Cricket Inc respectively.

Saber, on the purpose of his visit, said, "This visit to Australia and New Zealand to motivate and mobilise the support of the two important boards in favour of our Test aspiration is a very important one and will to a considerable extent determine the fate of our application in June."

The BCB president visited South Africa and Zimbabwe last month on a similar mission.

Agrani lessen relegation fear

Sports Reporter

Agrani Bank distanced themselves from the dreaded relegation zone of the Premier Division cricket league with a seven-wicket win over Gopibagh Friends Association at the Dhanmondi Cricket Stadium yesterday.

Chasing a paltry Gopibagh total of 153 in 50 overs, the batters surpassed the mark for the loss of three wickets and with more than 14 overs to spare.

Opener Abid Hanif scored highest 49 off 75 balls with the help of seven boundaries while one-down Sajjad Kadir chipped in with 33.

Among others, Mridul and Pakistani all-rounder Shaheen Malik, who took four wickets in the morning session, were not out on 28 and 22 respectively.

Earlier, electing to bat, Gopibagh tumbled into trouble. Only middle-order Farid Hossain with 41, and Indian Gurmeet Singh (23) stood up to the Agrani attack.

Shahin Malik conceded 26 runs in his 9.5 overs to return with four-wicket haul while medium pacer Mofizur Rahman Munna took three wickets for 23 runs from his seven-over spell.

It was Agrani Bank's fourth win in 14 matches which raised their tally to eight points, two more than that of Wari Club, who are occupying the second slot from bottom in the six-team Relegation League, garnering six points from 14 matches.

On the other hand, it was Gopibagh's 13th defeat in 14 matches. The promotees have already confirmed their trip down to the First Division next season.

Rain ruins fun in Guyana

Sports Reporter

GEORGETOWN, May 10 (Reuters): West Indies and Pakistan drew the rain-wrecked first Test of their three-match series on Tuesday after the final day was abandoned because the pitch was unplayable.

The entire fourth day had also been lost after a three-hour torrential downpour on Monday morning left much of the Bourda pitch, which lies slightly below the sea level, under water.

Ground staff were still mopping up on Tuesday morning when another shower speeded up the inevitable.

The match had been delicately poised when bad light stopped play on Sunday, with the West Indies on 222 for seven in reply to Pakistan's first innings total of 288 all out.

Another two hours of Sunday's play were also lost to rain, while bad light cost the teams a further hour in the evening.

The outcome is bound to fuel the controversy over the West Indies Cricket Board's (WICB) decision to play at Bourda, which is notoriously slow to drain, at the start of the rainy season.

It was the first time an attempt had been made to play a Test in Georgetown after the end of the April, when the drier season ends.

The WICB had drawn up emergency measures to move the Test to Jamaica after unseasonal rain during April but backed down when the weather improved.

In the event, CANA (Caribbean News Agency) radio said a move to Jamaica would have been even more embarrassing.

raising as it had rained there on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the first three days of the Test.

The limited action which took place confirmed that both teams, who meet again in Barbados starting on May 19 before the final Test in Antigua, were stronger in the bowling than the batting department.

It was also clear that team spirit in the West Indies side had improved greatly since Jimmy Adams, unbeaten in three Tests in charge, took over as captain from Brian Lara.

"It's disappointing not to play to the finish and a great shame for the people of Guyana," said Adams.

"We did very well to restrict them to 288 and to fight back to 222 for seven. It demonstrates our capacity to fight our way out of situations. That is a very good sign."

"We are still looking to improve in all areas. We dropped several chances, maybe we could have kept them to a smaller total and batted better than we did," he added.

A fascinating match had swung both ways until it was ruined by the weather.

West Indies took the initiative as they reduced Pakistan to 39 for five on the first day.

Inzamamul Haq then reaffirmed his status as Pakistan's only world class batsman as he rescued them by scoring 135 for his 10th Test century.

He was ably backed by Abdur Razzak, who came within 13 runs of his maiden Test century. Inzamam and Razzak shared a sixth-wicket stand of 206.

Pakistan were eventually bowled out for 288 halfway through the second day but their bowlers, particularly leg-spinner Mushtaq Ahmed, quickly had the home team in trouble.

Mushtaq took three wickets for 91 as the inexperienced West Indies batsman struggled to 139 for six, putting the visitors firmly in the driving seat.

The home team were then rescued by Shivarine Chandepaul who, batting in front of his home fans and having recovered from the fatigue that kept him out of the series against Zimbabwe, showed glimpses of his old self as he hit an unbeaten 46.

Chandepaul shared a record seventh-wicket partnership for West Indies against Pakistan with fast bowler Nixon McLean, who delighted the crowd with an entertaining 46 which included nine fours, three of them in one over from Mushtaq.
