Labour of Love

Yasmin Mulk's latest fashion collection

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

DESIGNING fashion wears is a creative way to express one's inner feelings with the blend of art and tradition. Yasmin Mulk is a fashion designer whose works are entirely based on classiness and grace. Her latest exhibition, now being held at Designer's Den Gallery, ends tomorrow with a fashion show at 7:30 pm.

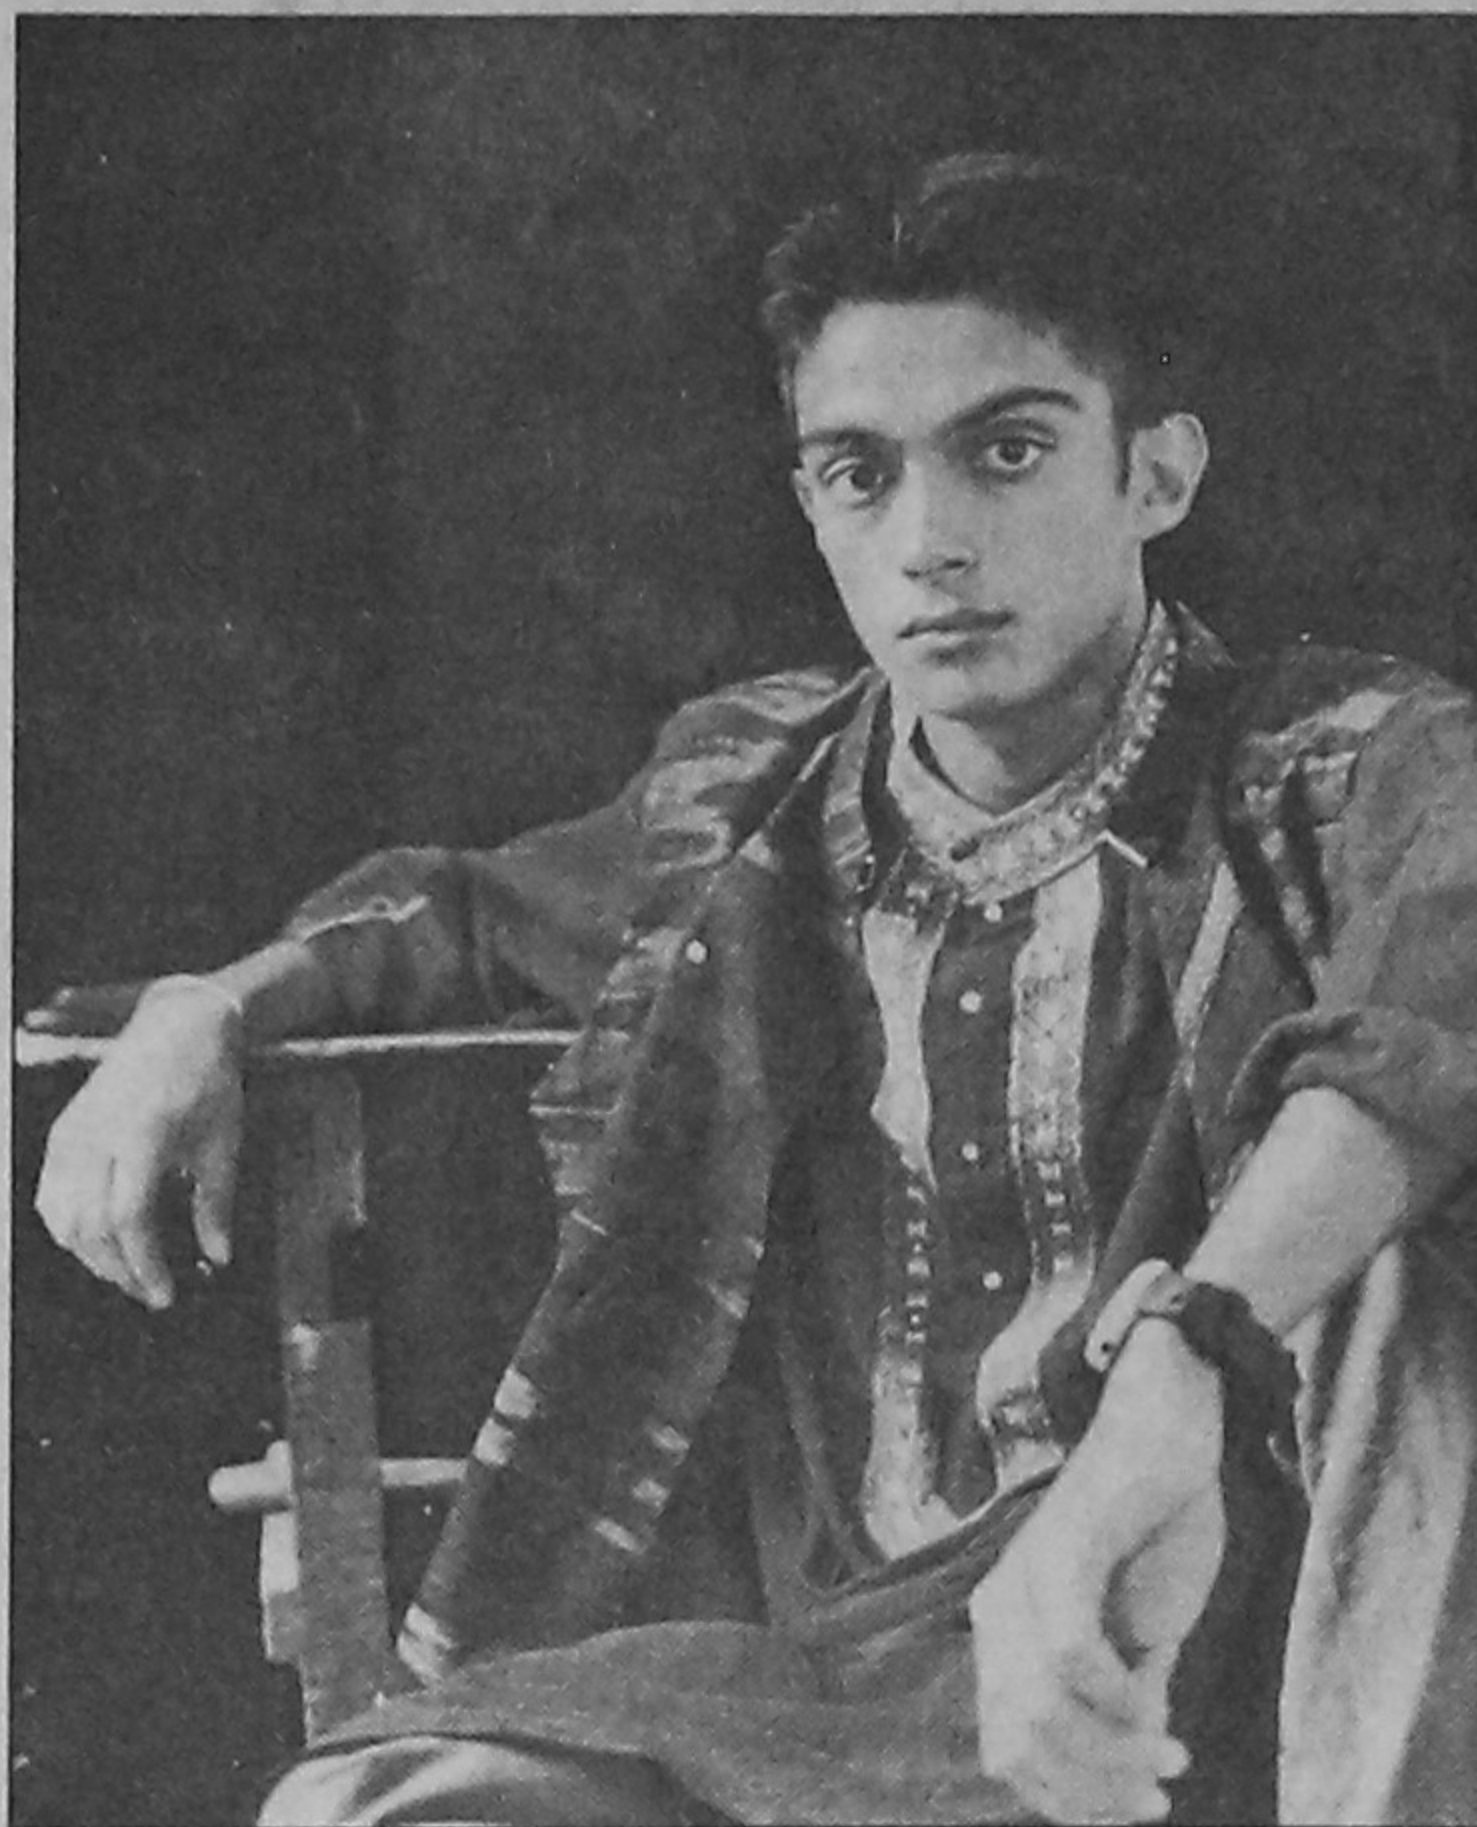

Yasmin is a self-taught designer. With a background in variety in colour and design, at the same time did not stick to a specific style. Most of the Kurta and the Panjabis have embroidered floral designs on the collar and shoulder areas. She used local khadi, silk and cotton materials. She prefers using Bangladeshi-khadi, silk and cotton.

Some of her Panjabis are done on heavy cloths. She also designed a range of Kotis to be worn with the panjabis. Along with these glamorous ones she added some simple Panjabis on simple cotton checks. Yasmin's sense of colour is quite impressive. Electrifying colours sparkle her work. Light blue, sparkling brown, off white, bottle green everything is there. And the embroidery threads are also chosen to balance the colour of the apparels. The price of the Panjabis ranges between Tk. 1350 to Tk.3000.

Her Jamdani collection is

quite interesting too. Yasmin did a few exhibitions before with her Jamdani collection. These exhibitions took place in Delhi and Dhaka. Most of her Jamdanis are on single light colour, having heavy works on the Anchaal. Price range for this authentic collection are between Tk. 5,000 to Tk. 6,500.

Besides the Jamdanis, there are also a few elegant silk saris. With single colour body, deep green or blue, these Saris have some unique embroidery on the border and the anchaal. These golden embroidery makes the designed portion of the Sari glow. They cost around Tk. 8,000.

There are few Salwar

Kameezes on display at the exhibition. Mostly done with block print and pasting of block printed clothing on the body, while the other piece of it has block print all over it. Black and red designs on white simply lighten up the set. Another colourful one hangs at the exhibition, which is done with striking yellow, orange and red colours combining them with interesting patterns. There are few exclusive evening wears among the Salwar Kameezes, these are done with golden and silver thread works. She also used off white Jamdani material in these. Prices for the Salwar Kameezes stand between Tk. 3,000 to Tk. 6,000.

Scarlet red sleeves and yolk with block print have made this salwar kameez ensemble stunning.

All in all, Yasmin's design does give a quite clear picture of her capability and her devotion for designing. Her works also proves that they are the products of labour of love.

Yasmin Mulk: The designer

Geology. Yasmin about 18 years ago let her natural designing talent bloom with children wear. Then she became more interested in ladies wear. She has exhibited her collections, apart from Dhaka, in USA and UK.

By the time she was fully into designing she suddenly realised that menswear in our country lacks creativity and touch of art. And about 3 years from now she began her designing fashion wears for men.

Her latest exhibition titled, Exotic Fashion Exhibition 2000 can be divided into three categories. Starting from Kurta and Panjabi for men, there is a special Jamdani collection and a collection of Sari and Salwar Kameez.

The main attraction of the exhibition is the menswear. Yasmin has made them specially as evening summer wears. She created a wonderful
