DUJA protests attack on journalists

By DU Correspondent

Dhaka University Journalists' Association (DUJA) brought out a silent procession and held a rally on the university campus yesterday demanding exemplary punishment to the persons involved in assaulting two university correspondents of two national dailies.

Starting from the Aparajeyo Bangla, the procession paraded through the campus and ended in front of the DUCSU building.

Addressing the rally in front of DUCSU building, DUJA president Abdul Kalam Azad alleged that terrorists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) are assaulting the reporters on the campus frequently as no action has been taken against them earlier.

He demanded immediate expulsion of those responsible for assaulting the newsmen.

A group of BCL workers assaulted Mahubub Zaman Nahid of The Daily Star and Tanveer Mahmud of The Bangladesh Observer on the campus on Saturday while they were on duty.

Meanwhile, BCL general secretary Ajay Kar Khokon went to the DUJA office yesterday afternoon and asked for two more days' time to take action against his party activists responsible for the attack.

Dhaka University Journalists' Association (DUJA) brought out a silent procession on DU campus yesterday protesting the attack on two university correspondents by BCL activists.
