All that Glittering Gold and Diamonds

House of Manilal brings its collection of diamonds and 22 carat jewelry to Dhaka

By Muneera Parveen

DIAMONDS are a girl's best friend. Therefore it is no surprise that most girls in town had been making a beeline for a rather quiet exhibition that took place at Hotel Sonargaon this week.

The display of House of Manilal, Dubai has brought together a rather exquisite collection of gold and diamond jewelry that has both modern as well as traditional pieces to interest a wide range of customers.

The display had some pieces in 22 carat gold which includes a range of loop earrings, tops, chains and rings. Sets on show that were eye-catching included a 3-piece set with a heavy 22-carat gold necklace inlaid with zircons and rubies. It included a matching large stud earrings and a huge ring. Another set in rice pearls had a huge gold pendant set with a large opal and small zircons. Smaller individual pieces on display were intricately designed 22-carat gold tops, small hoop earrings, half hoop earrings in rhodium and magnificent two-tone ear pieces fit for any occasion.

The range in rhodium jewelry included ear pieces including small hoops, half hoops and chains and bangles. All pieces are machine made in Singapore and very interesting for casual wear. The very modern bangles in two-three tones (rhodium) are mostly in straight lines and geometrical patterns. They are light and very eye-catching and ready to match with any look, eastern or western.

The small but glittering collection of diamond jewelry, seem all ready to break hearts, since diamonds are rare and beautiful. The pieces on show here have diamond pieces varying from 0.08 carats to 1.5 carat set in 18-carat gold and white gold. Jewelry set in white gold are all the craze at the moment and these pieces are no exception, each designed with care to cater people with different tastes in jewelry wear. The diamonds are white and brown.

A solitaire diamond ring, with a 1.3 carat c diamond set in simple 18-carat band ring was one of the better pieces here that stands out for its simple and elegant design that will befit any finger. There were a variety of designs in rings, including cluster and solitaire rings that have tiny diamonds set in white gold. Another eye-catching item here was a large ring in white gold with two straight bands crossed over on which are set tiny diamond pieces. The effect is simply gorgeous.

Pendants and bracelets in diamond are another collection that is equally beautiful. Especially interesting was a huge pendent piece resembling the Holy Mecca that is in 18-carat gold, set with two bold rows of brown and white diamonds. It has the word 'Allah' inscribed in gold both at the front and at the back. This large, rather flat, 3-dimensional cuboidal item is said to be a hit with Asians in the Gulf. More interesting is the story behind its design. The designer, Prasanne Javeri, is a Hindu, who is fascinated by the Mecca shrine, and has created several items with this theme. He in fact also wishes to visit the shrine itself someday.

Other pendants, some large and the other small are all set with the brown and white stones. A simple oval pendant in white gold with a single white diamond at its centre is a design here that stands out among the crowd of glittering stones for its bare simplicity in design.

The number of items on display at the Pan Pacific Sonargaon Hotel was ofcourse very disappointing, as it was very limited in number. However the items are merely here for display, and not for sale, for Manilal's is looking for a local agent here. If they find one, here will be more design coming here to lure the local customers.

The show, arranged in collaboration with Beshi Trading Co, a Dubai-based Bangladeshi company, ended yesterday.

However those interested to know more about these jewelry can contact Ehsan Chisty at 018 224 449.
