Joyee Premiered

25th production of Lok Natyadal staged at Guide House Auditorium

By Cultural Correspondent

ANOTHER evening of waiting starts for Joya when she sits in front of the mirror and begins to talk to herself. But whatever was disturbing her soon fades away from her mind and Joya now passionately waits for her beloved, Joy.

Her chain of thoughts centering Joy was suddenly interrupted when Jiban enters into her room and tries to draw her attention to him. Jiban insists on her going back with him but Joya is determined to stay with Joy.

It is gradually revealed that Jiban was her ex-lover and one feels that the story would be another typical love triangle. But the story gradually unfolds into an interesting one and unsettles one's comfort of the chair and forces one to take note of the proceedings.

This was the opening sequence of the play Joyee that was premiered at the Guide House Auditorium. The play is the twenty-fifth production of Lok Natyadal, one of the front-ranking theatre groups of the country.

The play continues with Joy and all three of them in the middle of an impassioned discussion. Soon it is dawned on them that they are no different from other people in the society, they are engaged in the same carnal love.

The play ends with the entrance of a symbolic character called Purgation. Joya decides to desert both her lovers and stay with Purgation.

The play began in an absurd vein as all three characters seemed to grope for a meaning in this meaningless world but at the end the protagonist, Joya, defied the tradition and convention to remain alone and respectively played Jiban and Joy.

The playwright has portrayed Joya, the protagonist, eventually as Joyee (Victor) to break the shackles of the society.

The play has been directed by young Ahmed Hossain and written by Shameem Ahsan. Aminur Rahman Azam did a good job in stage and light direction.

Fahmida Ahmed Pakhi brilliantly portrayed the character of Joya while Arif Ibne Rouf and Mihir Banerjee Anto
