Call for launching green movement

Speakers at a workshop in the city yesterday called for launching a green movement across the country to protect the fragile ecology and save environment, reports BSS.

They were addressing the concluding session of the three-day training workshop organised by the Association for Development Agencies in Bangladesh (ADAB) under Sustainable Environment Management Programme (SEMP) of the Ministry of Environment and Forest.

Presided over by ADAB Director Shamsul Huda, the UNDP supported workshop was addressed by SEMP Coordinator Dr Mahfuzul Haque, Chairman of Forum of Environmental Journalists of Bangladesh (FEJB) Quamrul Islam Chowdhury and ADAB Programme Coordinator Ranjit Roy.

Dr Mahfuz said SEMP is a unique programme where 22 different government and civil society bodies are co-executing different programmes implemented by the Ministry of Environment and Forest to help achieve sustainable development through grass roots initiatives.

Shamsul Huda said ADAB Hanif goes to Delhi for treatment

Dhaka City Mayor Mohammad Hanif left the city for New Delhi Thursday night for medical treatment, reports UNB.

Political leaders, ward commissioners and senior officials of the corporation saw off the Mayor at the airport.

along with various civil society bodies had helped the people at grass roots to formulate National Environment Management Action Plan (NEMAP) and are now trying to implement the follow-up of NEMAP by co-executing SEMP.

Quamrul Chowdhury emphasised the need for raising awareness about environmental degradation and concerns among the people and the ever deteriorating ecology and improve the environment for the common future of the nation.

Ranjit Roy gave a run down of the training programme which was participated by 26 different ADAB chapter representatives.
