Nikki Cox

©Touchstone Television

Nikki Cox portrays Tiffany Malloy, the middle child of the Malloy clan who's completely perfect in every way, on "Unhappily Ever After." Always the smartest and prettiest girl in school, Tiffany is not above using her appeals as a tool to achieve her goals.

"Tiffany is very smart and very ambitious. She has big plans for her future and will always be successful because she makes the most of her opportunities," said Cox.

Born in Los Angeles on June 2,1978, Cox expressed an interest in show business at age four. She was discovered by a prominent dance agent while taking dance classes, which led to her professional debut in the comedy film "Mac and Me."

Dancing was the original focus of her career, and she performed on tour with the Los Angeles Music Center Ballet and the Joffrey Ballet. Cox has appeared in Michael Jackson's "Moonwalker," Paula Abdul's video "Forever Your Girl," "The MTV Awards," and "The Arsenio Hall Show."

Cox began her television career at age 10, guest-starring on "Mama's Family." Other television credits include the role of Gina Cates on ABC's "General Hospital," as well as appearances on "Star Trek: The Next Generation," "Night Court," "Murphy Brown," "The Nanny," and "Boy Meets World," among others. Cox was also a series regular on "Someone Like Me."

In May 1998, Cox was introduced in a guest-starring role as Drew Carey's cousin on "The Drew Carey Show." In 1996, sandwiched between her "Unhappily Ever After" duties, Cox appeared in several episodes of "Pearl" for CBS. She also appeared in the television film "Freshman Fall," starring Candace Cameron, and starred in the television movies "The Ryan White Story" and "The Island."

On the big screen, Cox was featured in the Steven Seagal/Keenen Ivory Wayans starrer "The Glimmer Man" and appeared in the box-office hit "Terminator 2."

A voracious reader, Cox is 20 years old and lives in Los Angeles.

SOFTWARE FOR A COOL WINDOWS

By Monzur Morshed

Are you bored to see the same old startup/shutdown screen or the busy animation again and again? Check out these softwares—they'll surely cheer you up.

* XrX Add Bar = This one is a shutdown/startup screen creator With this shareware software, you can easily make .JPG, BMP, DIB, PCX etc. files your shutdown/startupscreen. It's very simple...just click on Load. After choosing the pic, click on Install. That's it.
Download from: Www.nucleus.com/~kmcmurdo/files/xrxaddbar2.zip

* Winhacker 95 = Relax! It isn't a hacking program. It's one of my most favourite software. It has a lot of options

It lets you change Windows Registry Startup Menu (Best Thing), and more...runs in Win98 too.
Download:
ftp://shareware.alberts.com/Win95/wh95v203.exe

* Microangelo98 4.77 = Still see the sand watch when the PC is busy? Too bad, why don't you try MA98? With MA98, you can create/edit icons (different pixels colours), animations and icon libraries (ICL). Not only that, you can change the icons of "My Computer", "Recycle Bin" etc.

Voodoo POWER

By Mohammed Saquib Hussain

I never knew that the new the Video Tech will be so good! My eyes were on fire when I saw the newest Voodoo™. The coolest Voodoo new is Voodoo5:5500. It's 300$ but I don't know the shipping charge yet!

Voodoo5 is the next generation ultrahigh-resolution game card. It has dual 3dfx VSA -1000 chips for FATAFATI 3D acceleration. Working in parallel, these processors produce over 667 Megatexels per second to create extraordinary three-dimensional world of hottest 32bit-color support! It has 64MB video RAM, state of the art REAL TIME HW Anti-Aliasing, supporting X-Clusice T-Buffer™ technology, a digital cinematic FX engine system, and top leading performance! And that's not all man! Is has support for 2d acceleration of (man is this for real?) 2048X1536! The professional scall it "The RAW 3d gaming power you need!—And thank god, every thing is not Voodoo5!"

Here's what I got special for this hot stuff: Full-Scene HW Anti-Aliasing / T-Buffer Effects / FXT1™ and DXTC Texture Compression / 128-bit 2D, 3D and video processor / 64MB graphics memory / 350MHz RAMDAC / 667-733 Megatexels per second peak fill rate / 8-bit Palletized Textures / 32-bit Rendering / 32-bit Textures / 2kx 2k Textures

Hey! note that Voodoo5 is also available in PCI and has the same FX and PRICETAG!

Voodoo 3: 3500:

VOODOO 5 5500 AGP

If price does matter go for V3-3500: ((Price$179.99)

Integrated Voodoo3 2D, 3D and video accelerator / Real-Time MPEG-2 Video and Audio Capture / Visual Reality Multimedia control application w/ Skin Technology / 8 Million Polygons per second peak processing / 183MHz Core Clock Speed / 366 Megatexels per second peak fill rate / 2.92 GB... second peak bandwidth / 3.50 Mhz RAM... 16MB high-speed SDRAM me... MPEG-1, 2... Playback / AGP 2x Model...

*Please note that this is an NTSC... board - for North America only. the... FM Tuner is not available in European... Voodoo3 3500 TVs.

A little piece of advice. Can't buy... high cost cards? There are old cards in... market that make all the games in... market [inc. QIII] playable. And that's... why I'm saying don't go for Voodoo... Banshee Riva TNT I will or others in... you want to buy 3D card for today... high class gaming ... Voodoo2, 3, G- Force Pro [Not sure about QIII], or Voodoo... may be thinking why QIII? Well... I am talking about Creative's 3D... blaster Voodoo2. ... quality 3D card. Download its latest... driver and see what happens in every... ya play QIII! For good measure you... may use an 8 MB of Voodoo... V2 is 12 MB PCI and come... affordable price.

If you want to go for a good card... only and only for: Sound... Platinum.
