Mohila AL demands direct election to women's seats

SHERPUR, July 10: Bangladesh Mohila Awami League demanded direct election of women to one-third seats of the Jatiya Sangsad in the next parliamentary polls for accelerating national development through empowering women.

Ivy Rahman, President of the League and also Chairperson of Jatiya Mohila Sangstha, informed this while addressing as the chief guest a function arranged for distribution of Taka 9.4 lakh small loan among 28 trained women under a project of Jatiya Mohila Sangstha for self-employment at Zila Parishad auditorium here.

The loan will be utilised in poultry farming, dairy farming, fast food, nursery and sewing training centres.

She said that the government has already taken up epoch-making decision for direct election in one-third reserved seats for women in union parishad, zila parishad, upazila parishad and all tiers of local government.

New laws should be enacted to ensure women representation in one-third seats of parliament to involve the women in development process in a bigger way, she said, adding that steps should be taken for empowering women who comprise 50 per cent of the total population.

Referring to disinterest of BNP and other opposition parties in parliament on reserved seats for women, she said they have been showing utter negligence in protecting the rights of women.

She called upon the women community to raise their voices against negligence of opposition political parties regarding their own interest.

Atiqur Rahman Atiq MP and Executive Director of Jatiya Mohila Sangstha Masuda Binte Quader also spoke at the function which was presided over by President of Sherpur Jatiya Mohila Sangstha Begum Shamsunnahar Kamal.

Chhagalnaiya upazila of Feni district.

The body of the deceased has been kept at the mortuary of Combined Military Hospital (CMH) to enable his elder daughter Navreen Ahsan to have a last look of her father.

She is a diplomat at the Bangladesh Embassy in South Africa.

Int'l coalition of historic site museums formed

By DU Correspondent

An "International Coalition of Historic Site Museums of Conscience" has been formed to link different historic sites and museums around the world with ongoing human right efforts.

Akku Chowdhury, member secretary of the Liberation War Museum disclosed this while addressing a press conference on various activities of the Liberation War Museum yesterday.

The coalition, which is first of its kind, formally launched its journey from New York following a week-long tour of representatives from various historic sites and museums across the world in May.

Akku said nine representatives of nine historic sites are members of the coalition. They are Jan Munk, Pamantik Terezin, Czech Republic, Akku Chowdhury, Liberation War Museum, Bangladesh, Leigh Rix, The Workhouse, United Kingdom, Victor Shmyroff, Gulag Museum, Russia, Patricia Tappata Valdez, Proyecto Recorder, Argentina, Marie Rust, National Park Service, United States, Sandra Prosalendis, District Six Museum, South Africa, Eloi Coly, Matson des Esclaves, Senegal and Ruth J Abram and Liz Sevcenko, Lower East Side Tenement Museum, United States.

"The coalition will play a pioneering role for museums in the promotion of democratic and humanitarian principles," he added.

Objectives of the Coalition are also to include gaining international recognition of the importance of participating sites and the issues they arise, provide technical assistance to coalition participants and other newly emerging historic site museums of conscience, connecting coalition participants to like-minded institutions throughout the world and stimulate collaboration and exchange of staffs, experts and programmes among the coalition participants.

GCO announces fresh programmes

Left-leaning Ganotantrik Chhatra Oikya (GCO) yesterday announced fresh programmes, including submission of memorandum to the Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor, to realise their six-point demand, reports UNB.

from July 11-18. They will submit memorandum, containing the signatures, to the VC on July 19.

Their demands include punishment of the accused involved in rape and killings on the campus, formation of an acceptable probe committee and recovering arms and evicting outsiders from dormitories.

GCO announced their programmes at a press conference in Madhu's Canteen at about 1 pm yesterday.

GCO leader Nurul Islam read out a written statement at the press conference, which was attended, among others, by Dipankar Shaha Dipu, Tahmidul Huq, Sabah Ali Khan, Major E Khoda and Imam Gazzali.
