Govt formulates plan to ensure children's rights

State Minister for Women and Children Affairs Prof Zinatun Nesa Talukdar yesterday said the government has formulated 'National Plan of Action for Children' to ensure their basic rights, reports UNB.
She was inaugurating a day-long workshop on 'Mobilising government and non-government organisations towards adolescent policy formulation' at WVA auditorium in the city, said an official handout.
The state minister said since adolescents constitute 23 per cent of our population, separate policy and plan of action was needed for their overall development.

Body to probe into Howlader jute mill situation

A meeting of the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Jute Ministry yesterday formed a three-member sub-committee headed by M Emdadul Huq Bhuiyan to investigate the causes that led to the closure of A R Howlader Jute Mills, reports UNB.
The sub-committee has been asked to submit a report with suggestions on how to restore normal production of the mill. The other members of the committee are Dr S M Mokhelesur Rahman and Adv Goutam Chakrabarty.
Two other sub-committees formed earlier placed reports on the overall situation of Adamjee Jute Mills and irregularities of Jute Directorate and supply of machinery and the causes of loss of the carpet mills.
Chaired by committee chairman M Shamsul Huq, the meeting was attended by Dr S M Mokhelesur Rahman, M Emdad Ali Bhuiyan, M Mojibar Rahman, Dr M Salek Chowdhury, Prof Kazi Golam Morshed and Adv Goutam Chakrabarty.
Shahjahan Khan MP attended the meeting on special invitation. Acting Secretary of Jute Ministry A K M Qamrul Huda and concerned officials were also present.

JS body for involving local people in WDB projects

A parliamentary committee recommended the authorities not to implement any water sector-related development project without local people's consent, reports UNB.

In a meeting yesterday, the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Water Resources Ministry also stressed the need for involving local people in all development projects under the Water Development Board.

It also suggested implementing the WDB projects under food for work programme during the period from December to March.

The JS body reviewed the damage caused to standing crops and WDB embankments and other infrastructures by recent flash floods across the country, including haor areas.

Presided over by committee chairman Abdul Momin, the meeting also reviewed progress in construction of embankments to protect the crops from the onslaught of floods and onrush of hill waters.
