BNCC prepares 23-point charter of demands

Global move for empowerment of women

Campaigning under an international move for women's empowerment, Bangladesh women organisations plan to submit their recommendations to the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition for taking necessary measures, reports UNB.

"We will also raise our demand at the Women Global March Conference to be held in USA," said convenor of the Bangladesh chapter of the campaign Advocate Fowzia Karim.

Some 50 NGOs and trade unions who are working for women's empowerment, women's poverty alleviation and gender equity already have formed Bangladesh National Coordinating Committee (BNCC) to press for their demands.

Through exchange of views with different organisations, the women's organisations have prepared a 23-point charter of demands, including one-third women representatives in the cabinet.

Other demands include one constituency in every district for election of women representative to parliament as empowerment of women will help change the attitude of the people, ultimately increasing the respect for women in society. A worldwide programme titled 'Global March of Women in Year 2000' has been launched simultaneously in 150 countries with an aim to establish a gender-democratic and exploitation-free society.

Women's global march 2000, its South Asian convenor advocate Sigma Huda and Bangladesh unit's convenor Fawzia Karim have already chalked out this year's plan to carry forward the movement for empowerment of women-folk.
