BCF protests newsprint price hike

By Staff Correspondent Bangladesh Chhatra Federation (BCF), a left leaning student organisation, yesterday brought out a procession on the Dhaka University campus in protest of increasing prices of different materials including newsprint.

Following the procession, BCF also held a rally in front of the Arts Building of the university.

The speakers were addressing a seminar on "Curbing conflicting tendency between the Hindus and the Muslims in South Asia" organised by the 'Liberation War, Bangabandhu and Bangladesh Research Institute' of National University.

National Professor Kabir Chowdhury presented the keynote paper while Dr Ajay Roy addressed the 10th seminar of the institute as the main speaker. Pro-vice-chancellor of the university Professor Borhanuddin Khan Jahangir chaired the seminar, which was followed by open discussion.

Prof Chowdhury in his paper said that the South Asian peoples enjoyed more communal harmony than other regions but some political elements from the very beginning of Indian history tried to create a conflicting attitude among different religious groups.

He said ultra-nationalism is responsible for cultivating fanaticism in the Sub-continent and there is no place of arrogant nationalism in the present world.

"Some writers of the nineteenth century consciously engineered a communal mind among general people through their writings," he said.

A left wing campaigner against communalism, Prof Chowdhury, urged the contemporary authors to come up with literary works to create a pleasant situation in society.

Prof Ajay Roy said that South Asian peoples not only observed conflicts between Hindus and Muslims but also experienced conflicts among different sects of the same religion like conflict between Shites and Sunnis, Brahmins and Non-Brahmins.

Participating in the open discussion, Dr Kazi Nurul Islam of Philosophy Department of Dhaka University said that some "religion traders" are manipulating the situation as people in general are unaware of the philosophies of their own religions and hold misconception about others' religions.

Reputed academicians yesterday stressed the need for establishing a South Asian platform of intellectuals to prevent fanaticism from taking roots in the region and establish communal harmony among the peoples, reports BSS.

The concept of "Cultural Pluralism" and "unity in diversity" should be exercised in large scale in different countries of South Asia, where fanatical forces are active to destroy the bond of cultural integrity, they said.
