Student beaten up at DU

By DU Correspondent

BCL activists beat up a student at Jashimuddin Hall of the Dhaka University yesterday suspecting him to be a Shibir activist.

The victim was identified as Sagir Ahmed, a MSS student of Political Science department and a resident of Mohsin Hall.

According to sources, hall unit leaders of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) charged him on suspicion when he was entering the hall at around 11.30 am. The BCL leaders and activists who gathered at the hall gate before bringing out a procession searched his handbag and found some documents relating to Islami Chhatra Shibir.

Later, acting provost of the hall Dr Mainuddin Kamal rescued Sagir from the wrath of BCL men and handed over him to the assistant proctor in presence of the police.

German Academic Exchange Service offers scholarships

German Academic Exchange Service has invited applications from Bangladeshi nationals for its scholarship programme for 2001-2002, reports UNB.

Application forms are available at the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany. The last date for submitting the application forms is October 15.

Under the programme, the Exchange Service is offering scholarships for PhD students within the "Sandwich Scheme," short-term research for young academics and those who are currently employed at an institution of higher education or a research institute, or who have plans for a clearly defined study or research project in cooperation with a German institution or professional colleague.

It will provide annual fellowships, short-term grants, deputation of faculty and academic networking for Bangladeshi students.
