JP to stamp out all forms of terrorism if voted to power

MAGURA. Aug 5: Deposed president H M Ershad today said his Jatiya Party would kick out all forms of terrorism and scrap black laws if voted to power in the next election, reports UNB

"As Jatiya Party does not believe in politics of terrorism, killing and vendetta, it would stamp out all sorts of terrorism from the country," he said.

Ershad made the promise while addressing a public meeting in Sadar upazila on Saturday. Magura is one of the southwestern districts where the outlaws usually reign.

The JP chairman said Awami League would never repeal the 'Vested Property Act' although the Hindus vote for AL candidates in every election.

"It is the Awami League leaders who grabbed the vested property," he told the meeting.

Govt creating anarchy thru' state-sponsored terrorism: Jamaat

Jamaat-e-Islami Banglacharged the government of creating an anarchic situation in the country through "state-sponsored terrorism," reports UNB.

order situation has been continuing and the government has not only failed to discharge its responsibility but also created an anarchic situation in the country by resorting to state terrorism," said a resolution of Jamaat Executive Council meeting held at the party's central office in the city yesterday

Ameer of Jamaat Prof Golam Azam presided over the meeting, said a press release. "Instead of paying heed to the demands of different quarters to punish the real culprits responsible for eight killings in Chittagong, journalist murder in Jessore and planting of bombs in Gopalganj through judicial investigation, the government has been continuing its propaganda against Jamaate-Islami and Chhatra Shibir," I the meeting observed.

The former president said he supported Awami League in forming government in 1996 for the greater interest of the country though BNP leader Khaleda Zia proposed to make him Prime Minister if he lent her the ladder in the hung parliament. His party is now in the BNP-led four-party alliance that waged an anti-government movement for early elections. The JP chief gave assurances of providing 100 per cent wages and allowances to the non-government primary school teachers and free education up to SSC level. With the next general elections nearing, he also pledges nationalisation of 24,000 nongovernment primary schools. tax waver on agri-inputs and modernisation of the police
