The American Alumni Association Seeks to Hire an Executive Director

The American Alumni Association (AAA), an association of graduates of American universities in Bangladesh, seeks an Executive Director to manage the association's activities.

The Association seeks a dynamic individual for this position capable of working with considerable independence and taking personal initiative. The job responsibilities of the Executive Director will include arranging membership fellowship activities, business networking, promoting employment opportunities for recent American graduates, developing a newsletter, developing an AAA Website, recruiting new members, tracking membership rolls, developing the AAA scholarship program, supervising the Association's student testing activities, developing personnel policies for the association, and other responsibilities to be defined in consultation with AAA's Executive Board. The Executive Director will supervise a staff of four. Applicants should be self-starters, possess an M.A. or B.A. degree from a reputed university, possess excellent spoken and written English and Bangla, have excellent computer skills including knowledge of word-processing and maintaining database programs. Prior work experience demonstrating skills relevant to the position strongly desired. Applicant will be expected to do light accounting work and maintain the office's petty cash box. In hiring for the position, the Association has a strong preference for a graduate of an American university. (Compensation package for the successful candidate will likely exceed Tk. 30,000/month with the possibility of a performance bonus.)

Employee will work a basic forty-hour week, but will be expected to arrange/attend evening programs as part of his/her job responsibilities. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should send their CVs to Mr Sayeeful Islam, Secretary, AAA, House No: 110, Road No. 27, Banani, Dhaka-1213 by September 5, 2000.
