

Reported in Audubon Society Magazine:

A Mexican newspaper reports that bored Royal Air Force pilots stationed on the Falkland Islands have devised what they consider a marvelous new game.

Noting that the local penguins are fascinated by airplanes, the pilots search out a beach where the birds are gathered and fly slowly along it at the water's edge. Perhaps ten thousand penguins turn their heads in unison watching the planes go by, and when the pilots turn around and fly back, the birds turn their heads in the opposite direction, like spectators at a slow-motion tennis match.

Then, the paper reports, "The pilots fly out to sea and turn directly to the penguin colony and overfly it. Heads go up, up, up, and ten thousand penguins fall over gently onto their backs."

Some Weird PC Tips

By Monzur Morshed

* Scan your latest pic: You have a Flatbed Scanner, but don't have a photo to scan. No problem! Just do what I say. Concentrate for a minute. Then, place your face in the scanner instead of the pic and let it be started. Don't move or your pic will be ruined. Thus, you can use your scanner as a Digital Camera (kinda).

* Save mail check time: You can save at least half a minute online. If you have Eudora Pro, click on "Check Mail" and enter your password there offline. Don't close Eudora. Connect to the Internet and choose "check mail" in Eudora. This time it won't ask the password.

* Change the icon of an exe: You must have a soft named Microangelo98. Run the MA98 Librarian, open and choose the desired .exe file. Thus, You'll find the default icon of that executable. Now simply change the icon with your one and click on save. Relax, your exe will be OK.

Dad Wanted

I am looking for a cool dad with long hair who, by occupation, is involved with a rock band. Preferable profession drummer. Dads with released album get highest priority. I am willing to change my present no-good dad, who is basically uncool and always wanting me to be an engineer while he himself is unwilling to become the Prime Minister (which is my suggested profession for him). I am 15 and I like to show off. Interested dads apply: Toto, Company Road, Dhaka

Son Wanted

We are looking for a nice son with whom we can actually live. We (me and my wife) ran away from our old home which is ruled by our ex-brat demanding son who used to use our car all the time, my wallet and all other things to attract the opposite sex. Anyway, now we've found a new home and looking for a son who wouldn't insist upon me becoming a drummer or my wife a biker. Interested sons apply: Menda Hossain, Abhoy Das Lane, Dhaka.

WEIRD WEB WEEKLY

BY THE $AL-MAN

This week I found out what I probably want to do when I grow up. Which is difficult for me to think about, since I hate the prospect of having to grow up. Childishness rules! And Aqua too!! YEAH!!

Anyway, I think I want to be a BOFH (B@stard Operator From Hell). The BOFH is a computer operator/network engineer. He's nasty, unethical, amoral, rude, deadly, brilliant, sadistic and very powerful (?). But above all, the stories about him are way funny. Way, waaay funny. You have got to read the episodes of BOFH. A good place to start is <http://members.iinet.net.au/~bofh/>

It has the first 115 episodes in HTML format. It also has links to other sites with more episodes. PLEASE, IF YOU HAVE ANY SENSE OF HUMOR, YOU ABSOLUTELY MUST READ THESE!

Heh heh... Syedur, don't be surprised if, the next time you try to change your password, the minimum length is set to 64 characters.

Since so many people I know seem to be trying to produce this particular type of webpage, here's a handy guide for them: How to make a Stoopid Web Page www.humorcolumns.com/badpage.html

I'm enjoying this quotations thing. Last week's was from Neon Genesis Evangelion R (Episode 27: Catharsis) - an awesome anime series about these big robots (EVAs), with these neural interfaces... I don't really know what's going on, since I missed the first 26 episodes. But you can find the R series at www.eva-r.com/evapage1.htm. At the time of the quotes, Asuka Soryu, the second child, is in some sort of coma, apparently injured during the destruction of the 17th Angel, and is apparently hearing her dead mom telling her to join her in death, and her dead dad telling her not to.

This week's quote is a lot easier. Guess where this is from: "We are trying to prepare humanity for that glorious day when there will be harmony among us, and the final evolution will be complete."

75th Anniversary

Grandpa Dobiruddin was celebrating his 100th birthday and everybody complimented him on how athletic and well-preserved he appeared.

"I will tell you the secret of my success," he cackled. "My wife and I were married 75 years ago. On our wedding night, we made a solemn pledge.

Whenever we had a fight, the one who was proved wrong would go outside and take a walk. Gentlemen, I have been walking in the open air day after day for some 75 years now."

MI2 Facts

The Cliff Song: The Song played while Cruise is climbing the cliff in the beginning of the film is a remake of a song called "IKO IKO." It can be found on the Original Score Soundtrack from MI2.

Cruise's Glasses: The glasses Cruise wears in the beginning of the film are actually Oakley Romeos (x-metal type). They cost around $275. They have a website too: www.oakley.com

Got the Time?: The watch Cruise wears in MI2 is a Casio G-Shock. There are different models of this watch.

A ride anyone?: The motorcycle Cruise rides at the end of the film is a 2000 Triumph speed triple. More Info: www.motorsportinc.com/triumph/speedtriple.htm

Howz That

By Maisha Shababa Rashid

Some time ago we had a neighbour by the name of Sarkar. They was a very weird family and used to do extraordinary things. For example during Qurbani Eid they bought a cow which was white in colour and since their darling five year old daughter wanted extremely to have a red coloured cow that year they painted it red!!! Poor Thing

During New Year they resolved to do a very hilarious thing. I laughed my head off when I heard what their resolution was. That year they would pay each beggar who came to their house only and take his/her photo so that they don't pay him/her twice!!! What was the reason for doing this I don't know. So after one month and after a lot of photographs there came a beggar to their house who looked like a "hijra" (that is a boy who looks like a girl). While taking his photo he asked them to take two photos of his and in return he would return the money they gave him and even give them two more tk. The Sarkars seeing their profit in this took two photos of his, and he left. After three or two days when the film was washed the same beggar returned and on being asked why he returned again, he replied (in bangla) "My mother wanted the photo to take it with her and look for a wife for me since I am so shy to go and show myself?!!!"

Book of the week

A twist in the tale-by Jeffrey Archer
This book is pretty old, I know. But try it. It is very interesting... a very unorthodox collection where logic goes astray. Archer just plays with the reader's mind.

Song of the week

Take a Look Around - Limpbizkit
I am sure most of you have listened to this a zillion times...but just for those geeks out there. It's the MI-2 theme.

Place to go to for the week

I don't go about researching for fuchka and chatpoti. But try the shop (if that is what you can call it) just on Satmasjid Road in front of that huge Stamford College board. It's cool!

Movie of the week

Try "The Patriot", it portrays a man caught between the love of his family and the love of his country...until both sides point towards the common enemy. A heartwarming story.
