New Books

Participation of the Rural Poor in Development

Edited by Md. Anisur Rahman

Publisher: Pathak Samabesh

Price: Tk 375

This book presents shorter and adapted versions of a first set of empirical studies the Md. Anisur Rahman had initiated in a programme of the International Labour Office in Geneva in the late 70s about the conceptual reflections on the question and problematic of people's participation in development. The studies and reflections first published in Development have been considered as a pioneering work on the subject which have had considerable impact on intellectual thinking and grassroots activism in this field.

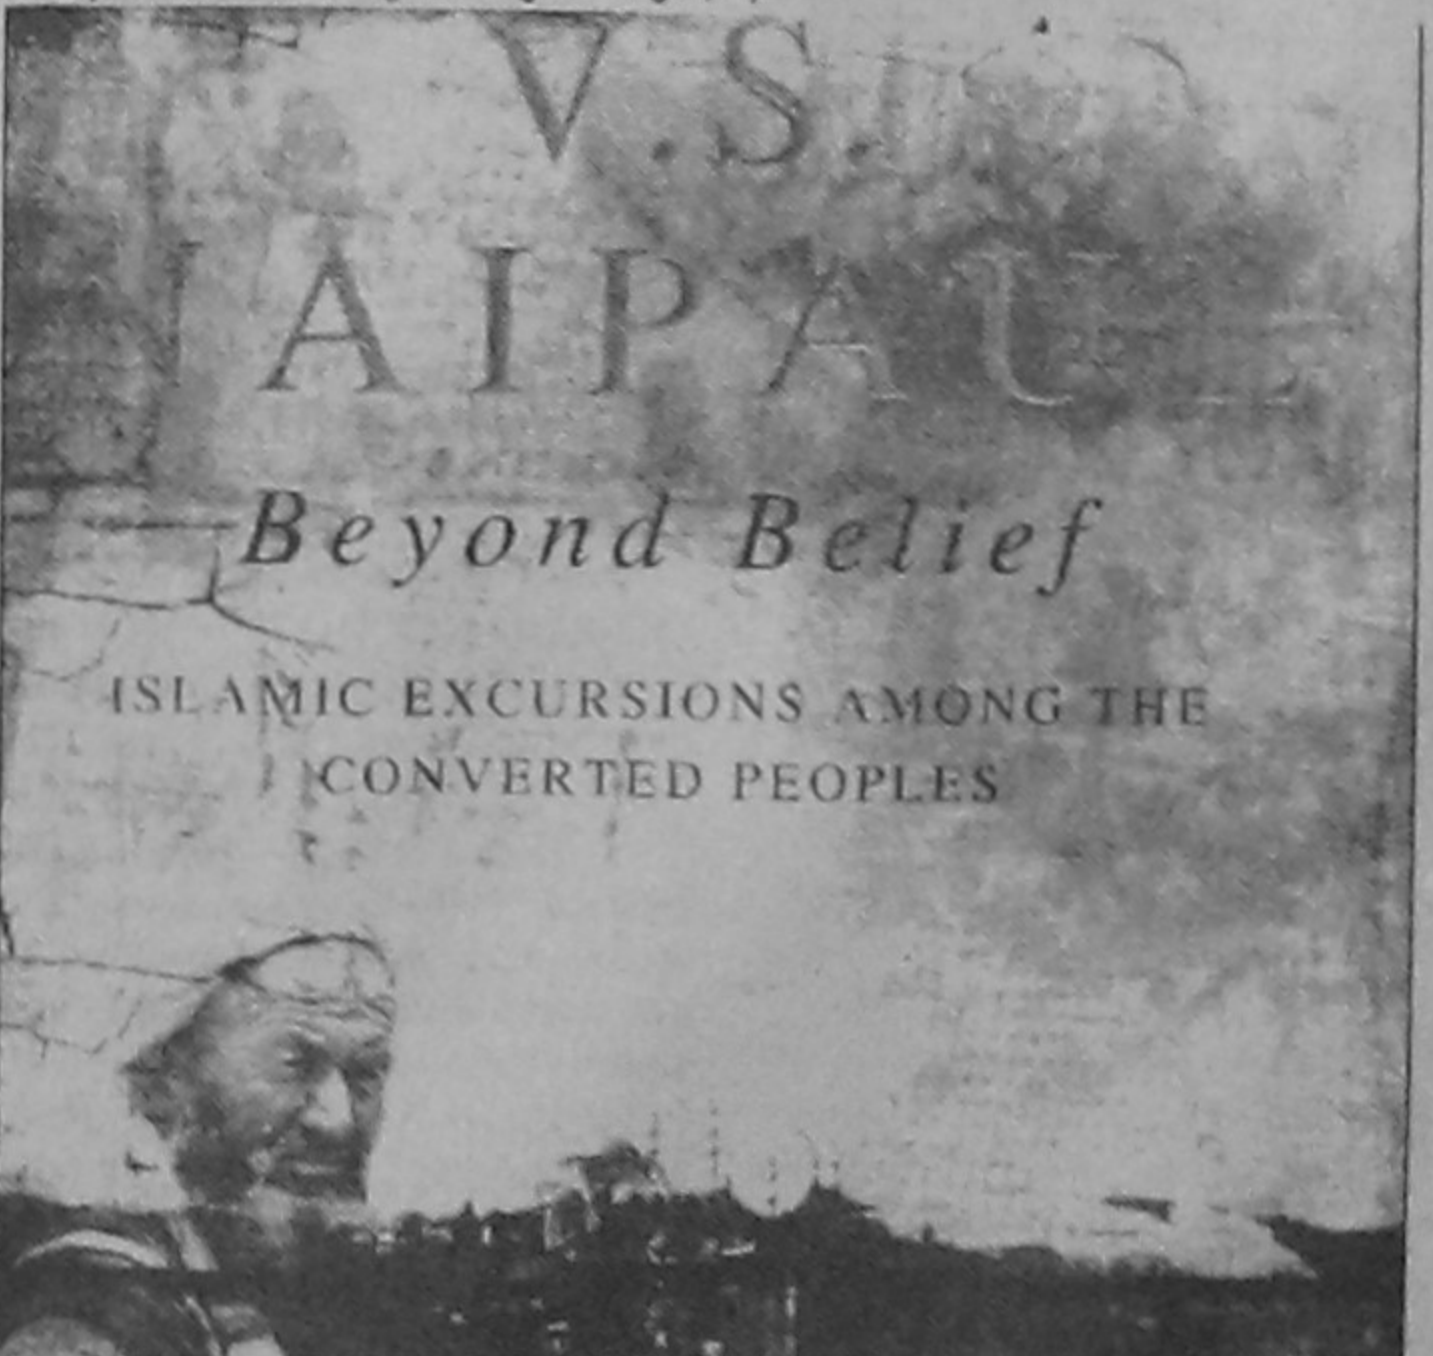

The Ascetic of Desire

A novel by Sudhir Kakar

Publisher: Penguin

Price: Tk 450

The time is the fourth century A, the golden age of Indian history. The locale: an ashram in the woods a little outside Varanasi. Every morning, Vatsyayana, author of the Kamasutra, recounts stories from his childhood and youth to a young pupil who plans to write the great sage's biography.

Beyond Belief

Islamic excursions among the converted peoples

Author: V.S. Naipaul

Publisher: Penguin

Price: Tk 750

What has Islam done to the histories of Indonesia, Iran, Pakistan and Malaysia? How do the converted peoples view their past and their future? In a follow up to his acclaimed classic Among the Believers, Naipaul returns to the countries about which he wrote his travelling account to find out how and what the converted people preach.
