

3 injured in Sirajganj road accident

From Our Correspondent

SIRAJGANJ, Sept 17: Three people, including two Indian nationals, were injured when a Dhaka-bound bus hit their car at Nalka on the west side of Bangabandhu Bridge here today at around 4:15 pm.

The injured were identified as PP Pundey, 60, chief engineer of Inter Continental Consultant Technocrat Pvt. Ltd, Delhi, RH Khan, 55, of India and Mohammad Ashraf, 35, of Sirajganj.

Pundey was sent to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) in the evening with critical head injury while the other two were admitted at the Sirajganj General Hospital. The bus fled the scene after the incident.

DCC hands over land for health clinic for poor

Dhaka City Corporation yesterday handed over a land for establishing Telegu Community Clinic for providing health service to the poor and distressed people, reports UNB.

Mayor Mohammad Hanif formally handed over the deed of the eight katha land to Jane Brooks, Director of Friends Bangladesh-USA, a US-based non-government donor agency for the clinic.

The land, opposite to the DCC central garage at Sayedabad, was allotted for Telegu Clinic last year.

Friends Bangladesh-USA will construct a two-storied community clinic where 200 distressed women and children will get different medical facilities including free medicine, said a press release.

The mud seen on this road is not caused by the seasonal rains. The water runs off from the construction site of Kamalapur stadium nearby keeps the road muddy, causing continuous suffering to the users of the road each day. — Star photo

Education Day observed

The Historic Education Day was observed yesterday in a befitting manner by the country's students community, reports UNB.

The day is observed commemorating the student movement of 1962 against Hamoodur Rahman Education Commission Report of the then military junta.

World leading television channel Discovery is launching a quiz programme "Discovery Channel quiz 2000" in Bangladesh today.

The launch of the Discovery Channel Quiz in Bangladesh is in line with Discovery Channel's vision of providing the students a platform where they can come together and learn about the world of science & technology, nature & wildlife, world culture, history and human adventure," Sanjay Khanna, Vice-President and Regional Director of Discovery Channel told a press conference in the city yesterday.

Internationally famed quiz master Derek O'Brien will conduct the bilingual quiz in English and Bengali.

The Discovery Channel has already introduced this audio-visual quiz programme in India and Sri Lanka. "We have been extremely successful in doing this in Sri Lanka and India," Khanna said.

The quiz is targeted towards

About 800 students of the city's 30 schools would participate in the quiz competition. The event will be held at the auditorium of the National Museum.

The Discovery channel is also going to introduce Bangla-dubbed programmes within a year for the viewers in Bangladesh and West Bengal of India, Khanna said.

Sanjay Khanna also announced the launch of Animal Planet, a family-oriented 24-hour channel, in the country. "Animal Planet is a unique channel, appealing to viewers of all ages. The channel's programming brings alive the relationship between man and animals and how we are share our home - planet earth, together," he said.

Local consultant of Discovery Channel Abu Taher Montu, Public Relation Director Kiran Negi also spoke on the occasion.

Three-day BCU nat'l council begins

By DU Correspondent

The three-day long 27th national council of Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) began yesterday on the Dhaka University campus with the slogan "Save the Education, Resist Copying, Terrorism, Anarchy and Discrimination."

Language movement veteran Abdul Matin inaugurated the programme at the Aperage Bangla on the campus at around 11.30 am.

Presided over by BCU president Monjur-e-khoda, the programme was addressed, among others, by Khandaker Md Faruk Hasan, Hasan Tarik Chowdhury Sohel, Sharifuzzaman Sharif and Atiqul Haq Khan.

Following the inaugural ceremony, the left-leaning student organisation brought out a procession from the campus and held a rally in front of Shukhkhola Bhaban after parading some city streets.

The council began at the Teachers and Students Centre (TSC) of the university.

More than 500 representatives from 74 units throughout the country are taking part in the programme.
