Wintech opens branch at Banani

E-curriculum entrepreneur Wintech International in association with local IT firm Heritage Information Limited yesterday launched its 2nd e-commerce education centre at Banani with pledges to produce efficient e-biz professionals, reports BSS.

Country manager of Wintech International Mayank Tripathi while inaugurating the branch said the e-curriculum here would be based on two of the world's best e-business technologies: Oracle Internet commerce server and Microsoft site server.

Fulfilment of labour rights must for industrial peace

Finance Minister Shah AMS Kibria yesterday called on assured foreign buyers and investors to infuse capital in the country, reports BSS.

Addressing the inauguration of a knitwear industry at Kuniya of Gazipur, he said there is no reason to be scared of uncertainty about foreign investment in Bangladesh as the country has no ethnic or insurgency problem.

He told a group of foreign buyers present at the venue that the temporary political turmoil in the country will end once the present democratic culture takes root.

The finance minister said fulfilment of labour rights and ensuring their welfare are the pre-conditions essential for industrial peace.

He urged the entrepreneurs to provide better pay and working atmosphere for the workers from which the owners of industries will benefit ultimately.

Kibria said the government has restored discipline in the banking sector, established an Equity Fund of Taka 100 crore and arranged Agram Bank Special bond for long-term patronisation of industrial development.

The inauguration of Rupa

Knitwear (Pvt) Ltd was also addressed by State Minister for Rural Development and Cooperatives Advocate Rahmat Ali and State Minister for Textiles AKM Zahangir as special guests.

Local MP Ahsanullah Master, Chairman of Janata Bank Board of Directors Dr Atiur Rahman, garment sector leader Mahmudur Rahman Manna, Managing Director of Agram Bank MA Yousoof and Chairman of Rupa Group Shamsul Alam spoke on the occasion.

Rupa Knitwear has set up 1800 machines and will employ 1200 workers initially.

Child Rights Week
from Sept 29

The Child Rights Week 2000 will be observed in the country from September 29 to October 5, reports UNB.

On the occasion, Bangladesh Shishu Adhikar Forum (BSAF) has drawn up a week-long programme, including colourful processions, art and essay competitions with the slogan "Corporal Punishment".

BSAF Chairperson Advocate Roksana Khondker announced the programme at a press conference at its office in the city yesterday.

Focusing on various aspects of child rights, she told newsmen that their programmes would be observed in 40 districts of the country.

Miscreants cut off tongue of young man

By Staff Correspondent

Miscreants tortured a young man and cut off his tongue at Nana Shyamkur in the city yesterday.

The victim was identified as Mohammad Shafiq, 22, son of late Jalal Bapari and a resident of Shyamkur area.

His relatives said two young men, Nazimuddin and Dulal, called Shafiq out of his residence and took him to Nana Shyamkur on Tuesday night. The relatives rescued him in an unconscious condition from the spot at about 2:30 pm yesterday.

Shafiq was rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital at about 3:45 pm yesterday.

12 domestic workers
murdered, 19 raped
in last one and half months

By Staff Correspondent

Twelve domestic workers were murdered, 19 raped, 21 became victims of torture, 25 had gone missing and five committed suicide following torture during one and a half month from August to mid-September.

This was revealed by speakers at a demonstration held by domestic workers at city's Tophkhana Road yesterday.

The speakers quoted different newspaper reports regarding the incidents.

"Domestic workers are not recognised as workers even though they work for years. They do not even get the minimum wages to survive. Recognition of their labour and legal rights and minimum wages should be guaranteed to them," central coordinator of the Domestic Workers Association Amirul Haque Amin observed.

The demonstrators also held a human chain to press home their demand.

Manikganj, Domar
pourasabha polls
October 25

The Election Commission (EC) yesterday declared poll schedules for Manikganj and Domar pourasabhas to be held on October 25. According to a press release of the EC, the election would be held as per the existing voter list, reports BSS.

The date for submission of nomination papers is October 1 and withdrawal date is October 9 while the nomination papers would be scrutinised on October 2.

Additional District Magistrate and District Election Officer of Manikganj have been entrusted with the duties as Returning Officer and Assistant Returning Officer respectively for Manikganj Pourasabha poll.

Additional District Magistrate of Nilphamari has been given responsibilities as Returning Officer for Domar Pourasabha election while Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) of Domar as the Assistant Returning Officer for the purpose.

Due to injunction given by a court election could not be held earlier in these two pourasabhas. Meanwhile injunction for holding the election has been withdrawn by the Court.
