Sculpting A Fresh Identity

A group sculpture exhibition held recently at the Zainul Gallery, Institute of Fine Arts has a point or two to make

By TAWFIQUE ALI

A group of seven young sculptors held a week-long exhibition of their recent works at the Zainul gallery that came to end on October 7, 2000.

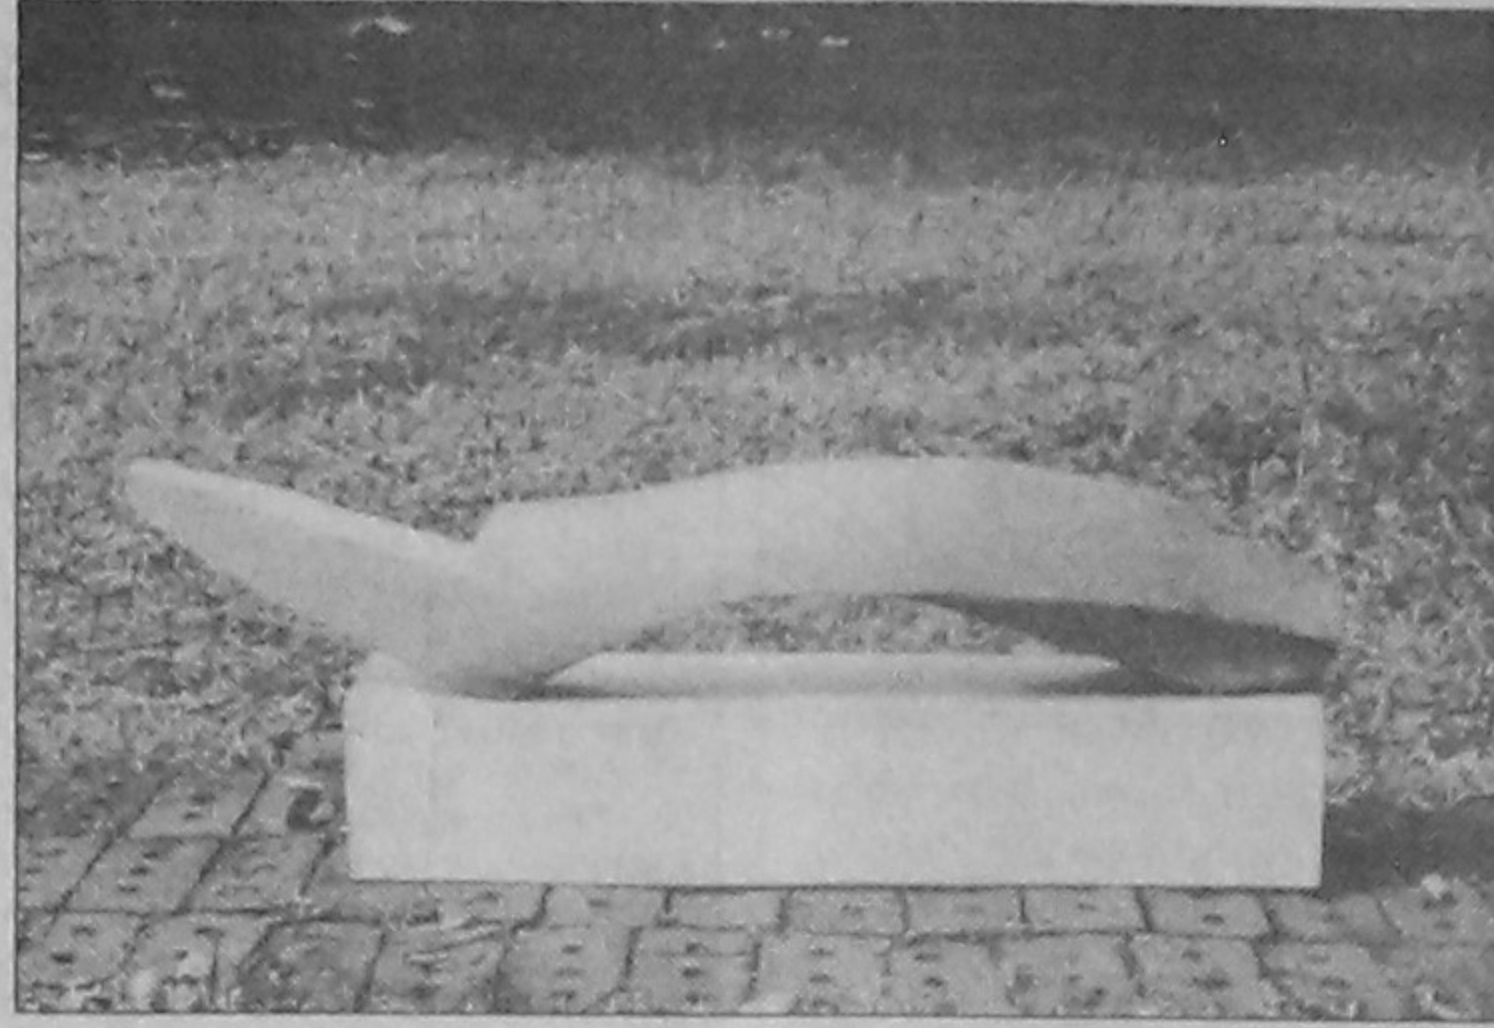

Compared to other forms of art sculpture is a neglected genre in Bangladesh. Sculptors hardly and virtually outcast. Novera, the woman sculptor, had to seek self exile in Paris to avoid social repression and reactionary social milieu of the 60s.

In the contemporary art world sculpture is a vibrant art form. Unlike other art forms sculpture can be three dimensional and can give a sense of direct sensual contact with the subject of the art.

Nasima Haque Mitu, Maynul Islam Paul, Mahbubur Rahman, Farzana Islam Milky, Md. Mahbubul Huque, Kabir Ahmed Masum Chisti and Imran Hossain—who have either done their B.F.A or M.F.A from Institute of Fine Arts, assembled their pieces together to offer the viewers visualize their expressions of different feelings about life and experiences derived from there.

Right at the entrance of the gallery, Imran's Sunagorik (good citizen) -182 done in papier-mâché, are semi realistic in style. In these works, two deformed glutinous human figures are seen engaged in devouring shamelessly. Although the title of the series is Good Citizen, there is a tone of satire in them. How our responsible citizens are gulping the country's resources. Visual deformity of the figures is suggestive of the sick people around us.

Paul has done a series on Kathopokathon (conversation) in wood that appears to be too obscure to understand easily. "They depict conversation with one's own self", explained Paul, while talking about his works. Mahbub's works have been titled as Tal Patar Sepai—a sepoy without gun, in wood that show the essential hollowiness of man. Chisti's Probbat Bondona (morning prayer) in metal, with its solemn meditative mood, evokes a sublime feeling among the viewers.

The show has been successful in drawing a wide range of visitors.

Nature Of Ceramics

Halimul's second solo exhibition at Zainul Art Gallery

By SHAHANA PARBEEN

Beauty and art lies in the perception of the viewer. Just as there are definite geometrical shapes and colours, there also are abstract art forms where the shapes do not conform to the regular geometrical patterns and the colours are not the regular red, yellow or blue. However there is beauty in such abstract forms too. As a matter of fact abstract art forms leave a great deal to the one's imagination and the same piece may be interpreted in a wide variety of ways by a wide variety of people. Such an abstract art exhibition of stone ware is being held at the Zainul Art Gallery at the Institute of Fine Arts.

were partially filled with water or any other liquid. The shells and conches came in a wide variety of intricate colours and patterns. The were busts of all shapes and sizes. Most of the displayed pieces are for sale except for a few large busts. The prices of the items have a wide range. Some cost as low as Tk. 700 while some are as high as Tk. 40,000.

Halimul Islam has done his Masters in Fine Arts from the Institute of Fine Arts, University of Dhaka. This is his second solo exhibition his previous one been held at the same venue in 1998. Islam has many more group exhibitions to his credit. These include partici-patation in the 5th and 6th Asian Biennales, Golden Jubilee Art Exhibition of the Institute of Fine Arts, and the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th Young Artists Art Exhibition, Dhaka. He has received many awards in recognition of his work. Among these are the experimental best Award in Ceramics in the annual Art Exhibition in the Institute of Fine Arts in 1997. Halimul Islam has collections in the National Museum, Dhaka too.

The exhibition, titled 'Nature of Ceramics' will remain open from 2p.m. to 8 p.m. every day up to 16th October.

have a patron or a buyer to their work.

But still there is a flicker of hope lies in the fact that a significant and meaningful shift has taken place after the claustrophobic time of the 60s and 70s when sculptors were stigmatized

The works put on display, show the artists' ability to breathe life into the inanimate objects and turn them into art.

The works displayed on the show are done in papier-mâché, wood, and metal. The participants of the exhibition ---
