From the Depth of Feeling

10th solo painting exhibition by Khalid Mahmood Mithu starts at the Divine Art Gallery

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

Well-known photographer and film director, Khalid Mahmood Mithu is also one of the most fecund artists in our art world. His recent painting exhibition at the Divine Art Gallery speaks volumes about his creative energy.

The exhibition was inaugurated by Anders Johnson, Ambassador of Sweden as chief guest. Andre Raynouard, counselor for cultural, scientific and technical affairs, Embassy of France was also present as special guest while Dawood Farhan, visa documentation officer of Australian High Commission was also present as special guest.

While speaking at the inaugural ceremony Anders Johnson said that the rich cultural heritage of Bangladesh had always fascinated him. He also added that he had seen Mithu's work before and this time they had taken a newer turn, showing a deeper understanding of the intimate synergy between man and nature.

In his speech Andre Raynouard said that he had known Mithu and his family for 15 years now. During the period of 1986-1993, he had had the opportunity of experiencing the works of some of the finest young artists of that time like Mithu and Kanak Champa Chakma, who had over the years shot into the mainstream art world of the country. Comparing Mithu's previous works with his present ones, he said that his works had become extremely intricate and focuses more on the inner world of man.

While speaking at the inaugural ceremony Dawood Farhan said that Mithu drew from his undiluted feelings and that was what made his work so special.

The inaugural ceremony was hosted by renowned TV compere Abur Noor Tushar.

Noor Mohammad, owner of the Divine Art Gallery, was also present on the occasion.

Khalid Mahmood Mithu did his Masters of Fine Art, University of Dhaka in 1986. He also participated in several courses on video, animation, graphic printing and photography.

The present show has 40 exhibits. Said Mithu, "In this show I have tried to express what I'm unable to express through the other media of creative arts I work with."

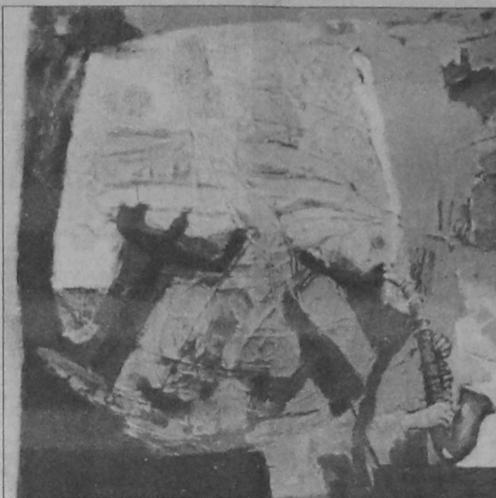

Almost all his works are in abstract form but there are some semi-abstract figures and objects in them as well. Musical instruments, objects and items of our daily life come as recurrent motifs in his work. In Music from Past, he paints a violin and tries to paint the impact of music on us. The portrayal of music which he heard long back becomes visually alive in the work.

Most of Mithu's work are done in acrylic on canvas and a very few drawings done in ink featured in the show.

Khalid Mahmood Mithu

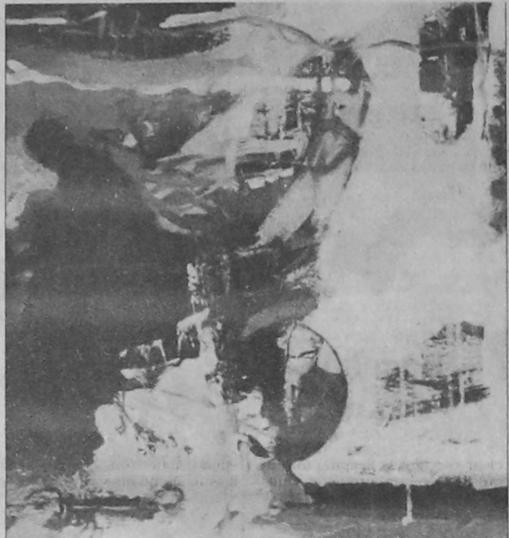

One thing which is clear from Mithu's work is that he loves music and tries to express his feelings for music through his work. Another aspect of his paintings is his eloquent use of colours. He works mostly with the basic colours. Green, Blue, Yellow - all the colours of nature are found in his paintings. Mithu's works are also uniquely textured. He emphasizes them according to the use and separation of colours.

In The Chair he pasted newspaper cuttings. The painting has a deep red background and has a textured portion in black and white.

In Rickshaw he beautifully captures a rickshaw in motion. There are artists who discover their voices at an early age, and are artists who mature as they grow old. Mithu belongs to that breed of artists who discover they as they paint on.
