to safeguard rights of the common people

Jatiya Nagarik Forum (JNF), a body of the citizens, formally came into being yesterday with the objective of safeguarding the rights of the people, national independence, heritage and culture, reports UNB.

Former Chief Election Commissioner Justice Abdur Rouf, former Vice-chancellor Yusuf Ali Aftab Ahmed, Gen (rtd) Mohammad Ibrahim, Barrister Tazmul Haque, Mohammad Yahiya, Dr Ashkar Ibne Shaikha, Alamgir Mohiuddin, Prof Mohammad Abu Zafar, Dr

Hasanuzzaman Chowdhury, Dr Abdur Rob, Prof Razia Akhter Banu, Aftab Chowdhury, Al Mujahid, Prof Afzal Chowdhury and Prof Abul Hasan spoke at the inaugural function held at the Institution of Engineers. Poet Al Mahmud who pioneered the organisation presided.

They called for forging greater unity of democratic and Islamic forces to protect the rights of the masses, safeguard national interest, preserve national heritage and culture under threat of external aggression.

They stressed the need for focussing on the causes of social unrest, deprivation of the people, exploitation, repression and misuse.

Calling for ensuring citizens' constitutional rights of the people Justice Abdur Rouf laid importance on voters identity card.

Al Mahmud, president of the Forum, said that the organisation was established to create an environment in which the government functionaries would be accountable to the people.

Gen Ibrahim said that he thought that Muslim identity of Bangladeshis will help bring peace and security in the country.

Rain hampers life at DU

By DU Correspondent

The resident students of different dormitories of Dhaka University suffered much due to heavy rains yesterday. They faced acute problem of food and water throughout the whole day.

In most halls, canteens were kept closed for scarcity of water & electricity since morning, sources said.

The students had to take their meals in restaurants around the campus.

Meanwhile, the academic activities of the university were also suspended but examinations of some departments were held under special arrangements.

The central library remained closed till afternoon and students' attendance were very thin. The administrative activities were carried out as usual.
