hosts Lebanon.

sure of that.

"Thailand have become a

We didn't score enough non," their English coach. Peter goals, but we made an impression. If 'Zico' had been here he would have scored goals. I'm if they saw our last two games against Iran and Lebanon will think that they have a very players may suffer a reaction after doing so well at the Asian Cup, but is determined that psychologically they will be players there is often a kick.

back after a good performance he said. "I know there is a chance of us doing that in the Tiger Cup, which is why I work hard on my players maintaining back in their build up to Sunday's opener when skipper

Nazri Nasir, vital to the Lions title defence, limped from a training session after aggravating a thigh injury suffered in Wednesday's 1-0 in a friendly

"It's still painful. I feel the pain even when I bend the leg-he said as he packed ice around

"I must, and I want to, play

Cambodia's German coach in the opening game. I feel it is important for me and the Laos" who are ranked 165 in Singapore's suffered a seta level of consistency."

against Indonesia.

the injury.

team."

But they nevertheless the world by FIFA. 16 places

Withe's one worry is that the semi-professional difficult task against us."

"The other Tiger Cup teams."

Big win for England

RAWALPINDI, Nov 4: England won their four-day side game against Pakistani Patron's XI here Saturday by an innings and 27 runs, reports AFP.

The tourists wrapped up Patron's XI innings for 169, 44 minutes before tea on the final England play another side game at Peshawar from November 8 before taking on Pakistan in the first of three Tests in Lahore from November 15.

Patron's XI batsmen, with the exception of teenager Qaiser Abbas and Mohammad Naveed.

failed to put up any resistance. Abbas followed up his 71 in the first innings with a sedate 44 before falling to a sweep shot off Ashley Giles, rebounded from a short leg fielder to mid wicket where lan Salisbury took the catch.

Abbas hit four fours in his 135-minute stand and showed he has the patience and technique to stake claims in Test cricket.

Earlier Mohammad Naveed made 44 with seven boundaries before becoming one of wicketkeeper Paul Nixon's five vic-

Yorkshire paceman Matthew Hoggard, who has played only one Test against Zimbabwe earlier this year, finished with Hoggard took five wickets in the first innings.

Left arm spinner Ashley Giles took 3-38 while legspinner lan Salisbury finished with 2-51.

Patron's XI had made 237 in their first innings. England replied with 433 to take a 196 run lead with Craig White hitting a century.

SCOREBOARD Final scorecard of the four-day cricket match between England and Patron's XI at Pindi Stadium on Saturday: 237 (Qaiser Abbas 71; Matthew | at Derby.

Hoggard 5-62) ENGLAND: First innings 433 (Craig White 120. Graham Thorpe 88. Graeme Hick 81:

Mohammad Akram 4-105) PATRON'S XI: Second innings

Naveed c Nixon b Hoggard 44 I Abbas c Nixon b Salisbury 12 Kamran run out M Wasim lbw b Hoggard Q Abbas c Salisbury b Giles 44 Salman e Nixon b Giles Qadeer lbw b Salisbury Shafiq c Nixon b Hoggard Ansari c Nixon b Hoggard M Akram c Trescothick b Giles0 Sami not out

Total: (All out in 65.3 overs) 169 Fall of wickets: 1-26, 2-59, 3-86, 4-97, 5-111, 6-126, 7-165, 8-169, 9-169

Extras: (b-1: lb-5)

Bowler Giles 1 16.3 5 38 Salisbury 19 1 10 0 Result: England won by an innings and 27 runs.

Futre's new assignment

MADRID, Nov 4: Paulo Futre, a former Portuguese international and Atletico Madrid striker, has been appointed the struggling Spanish Second Division side's new sports director, club president Jesus Gil y Gil announced on Friday, reports AFP. "I'm very proud to be here.

It's a decision of the heart rather than the head. Atletico made me what I am," said Futre at the press conference he and Gil held. Futre, whose number two will be his lawyer. Vicente Montes, takes charge of all the club's sides from juniors up to the first team and will also act as club spokesman to the Futre takes over the post from Miguel Angel Ruiz, sacked by Gil on Thursday.

"I have every confidence in the squad, there are 90 points still to play for and we're only eight points off a promotion place. We'll need to be more united than ever, it's a delicate moment and we need to go up." insisted Futre.

Futre joined the Madrid side in the 1987/88 season and stayed until 92/93, winning two Spanish Cups in his time.

Toney stops Butler

VERONA, New York, Nov 4 Former International Boxing Federation middleweight champion James Toney stopped Courtney Butler at 1:14 of the third round of their scheduled 10-round cruiserweight fight reports AP Toney, who wore zebrastriped trunks with the words "Lights Out" on the clastic on Friday night, improved to 60-4-2 with his 38 knockout. He is the World Boxing Council's topranked cruiserweight challenger, and is ranked second by the World Boxing Association and IBF.

"He didn't have much. Most of his punches deflected off my shoulder." Toney said. "I let him hit me until he made me mad. Once I get mad, I want to do some damage. When I'm mad my opponent can't handle what I can deliver, no matter who that person is. Butler, of Baltimore, is 20-5-2. In a 10-round lightweight fight, Victoriano Sosa of the Dominican Republic unanimously outpointed Harold Warren of San Antonio. Sosa improved to 27-2-1, and Warren dropped to 42-1-4.

Premiership

Venomous Viduka

sensational 4-3 victory over rivals Liverpool in the Premiership's early morning match at Elland Road on Saturday, re-Viduka struck either side of half time to level the scores after defenders Sami Hyypia and Christian Ziege both scored with headers to give the visitors cushion, but first Smicer minute a two-goal lead.

Czech midfielder Vladimir Smicer fired Liverpool back in front only for Viduka to find the target twice more and give David O'Leary's men all three

Leeds were without 10 firstteam players as they looked to end a run of five matches with-

Nigel Martyn, skipper Lucas Radebe, Harry Kewell, David Batty, Jason Wilcox, Michael Bridges. Stephen McPhail, Michael Duberry. Danny Mills and Darren Huckerby were all side-

Liverpool, in contrast, were virtually at full strength as manager Gerard Houllier recalled Dutch goalkeeper Sander Westerveld, Ziege, Emile Hes: key and former Leeds skipper Gary McAllister to the starting

The quartet had all been on the bench for the Liverpool's 2-1 midweek success over Chelsea in the League Cup, a victory which extended their winning run to five matches in all competitions.

But Liverpool were again without Michael Owen, still recovering from a head injury PATRON'S XI: First innings | sustained in the recent match

With less than two minutes gone Liverpool made a lightning start, with Finland international Hyppia scoring his second goal of the season. Heskey was felled by Jonathan Woodgate wide on the right and referee David Elleray awarded a free-kick. Patrik Berger's inswinging left-footed delivery was met perfectly with a glancing header from Hyppia with keeper Paul Robinson rooted to the spot. Just when it appeared as if Leeds' injury problems could not get any worse, Woodgate came off in the 16th minute to be replaced by New Zealander Danny Hay. The change unsettled Leeds and two minutes later they fell further behind.

Leeds defender Gary Kelly fouled Berger on the left wing over a searing 25-yard shot. and McAllister whipped in the free-kick for German international Ziege to head home - his first Liverpool goal since his 5 million pound (7.5 million dollar) summer move from Middlesbrough.

back into the game after 24 minutes when Ziege's attempted clearance was charged path of Viduka. veld with a delightful chip for eight-yard drive. his seventh goal of the season.

down by Alan Smith into the powerfully headed home his second of the game, and eighth Leeds hauled themselves of the season, from an excellent Kelly right wing cross.

But Liverpool composed themselves and were back in front in the 61st minute as Ziege, Hamann and then Berger The Australian took one were all involved in the buildtouch to tee up his shot before up for Smicer to turn Matteo beating the advancing Wester- and beat Robinson with an

However, Viduka was not After that Liverpool should finished and he completed a have restored their two-goal stunning hat-trick in the 73rd planted a free header on top of the net from close range, before from Dietmar Hamann.

FOUR-STAR STRIKER: Leeds' Australian international hitman Mark Viduka celebrates after scoring against Liverpool in their Premiership match at Elland Road yesterday. -- AFP photo

saw Heskey on the end of a McAllister cross as United's defence was again exposed.

Westerveld produced the save of the half to deny Olivier Dacourt. flying to his left to tip, path, Two minutes into the second half Leeds were remarkably back on level terms. defence in disarray as Viduka veld.

ball found the Australian and Robinson superbly saved a shot after spurning the initial shooting chance, he then spun Three minutes from the Berger on his heels before break another Liverpool attack driving the ball home underneath Westerveld. Viduka then scored a stag gering fourth two minutes later On the stroke of half-time as Dacourt tried a long-range shot which spun off a Liverpool player into the Australian's

Dacourt's brilliant through

Viduka looked offside as Da court fired in, but there was no flag, and the 26-year-old again took the ball in his stride before This time it was Liverpool's chipping the advancing Wester-

"There is no sense in the Italian Professional Football

his body's statutes would have liani's legal action threat, said:

the consequences of this act cations, the legal aspects must when Italian players are beginning to rebel against what they consider favourable deals given Filippo Inzaghi has advocated a cap of five foreigners that has been suggested by many pundits - a move that has the support of current Italian national team coach Giovanni Trapattoni the helm of the Azzurri. Dino general keen on cheaper foreign talent but the requirement not to exceed the numbers of non-to dubious practices.

Clubs, meanwhile, are in Juventus and Italy striker to non-domestic talent.

The ruling comes at a time and see what the obligations ment of local talent:

ers.

implications.

announcement AS Roma presi- League president Franco Car-dent Franco Sensi said he be- raro, whose organisation gov-

Bundesliga

Leverkusen climb

BERLIN, Nov 4: Bayer Leverkusen, under new coach Rudi Voller, went third in the German Bundesliga on Friday night after defeating Eintracht Frankfurt 1-0 at home, reports Leverksuen moved up two places provisionally at least ahead of the weekend's fixtures thanks to a late goal from Michael Ballack.

On Saturday champions Bayern Munich host Borussia Dortmund, while Kaiserslautern take on Shalke 04

Chilavert's debut delayed

STRASBOURG, France, Nov. 4: Jose Luis Chilavert, Strasbourg's newly signed 'keeper, will not after all make his debut this weekend after it emerged on Friday that he has two matches of a three match ban to sit out, reports AFP.

The Argentine Football Federation informed their French counterparts of the situation on Friday morning.

Chilavert had been looking forward to a debut in the bottom of the table clash at Toulouse, but will now miss the tie as well as next week's clash at home to Bordeaux.

Thierry Debes, who has picked the ball from the Strasbourg net 30 times in the last 13 league games will enjoy a two match stay of execution before Chilavert, a 35-year-old Paraguayan, takes over on November 18 at Auxerre.

Chilavert has 59 caps and 54 goals to his name. He joined Strasbourg from Argentine outfit Velez Sarsfield on Wednesday in a two-and-a-half-year deal worth two million dollars to his former club and 130,000 dollars a month to the player.

Vieri included

Inter squad

APPIANO GENTILE, Italy, Nov 4: Christian Vieri has been named in his Inter Milan's squad of 22 players to travel to Verona Sunday for a Serie A match, his club's website revealed Friday, reports AFP.

It is the first time that the Italian international striker. who has been suffering with injuries to his right leg, has been included in the squad since May's Champions League play-off match with Parma. It is unlikely that Vieri will start at Verona as coach Marco Tardelli has indicated he will persist with the partnership of Turkey's Hakan Sukur and Uruguayan Alvaro Recoba both men scored in Wednesday's 2-0 defeat of AS Roma.

The website furthermore said Tardelli, keen not to risk his most prestigious asset's health by rushing him back into action, will decide Sunday morning whether to name Vieri as one of his substitutes but added that he would certainly feature in next week's UEFA Cup match with Vitesse Arnhem of Holland.

Vieri signed for Inter from Serie A rivals Lazio for a then world record fee of 49 million dollars in 1999.

Zidane loses appeal

NYON, Switzerland, Nov 4 Juventus star Zinedine Zidane's appeal against a five match European ban was turned down here on Friday by UEFA's appeals committee, reports AFP.

The ruling by European football's governing body caps a bad week for the France international playmaker who, after a dull showing and half-time substitution in Juventus' midweek 2-1 defeat to Udinese, will now have to sit out the suspension in Champions League competition.

Zidane, whose appeal was heard at UEFA's headquarters here, was initally banned when he headbutted a player in Juventus' October 24 Champions League match against German side Hamburg.

FAI clears the air

DUBLIN. Nov 3: The Football Association of Ireland (FAI) on EU players has sometimes led | Thursday said they are satisfied that former striker Tony Cascarino was always eligible to become a citizen of the Republic of Ireland and therefore able to play for his country, reports.

> Earlier this week Cascarino claimed that he may not have been eligible to play for the Republic because his maternal grandfather was not a blood relation. His mother had been

In a statement to clarify the situation, the FAI say they have consulted their own files and those of the Irish Government's Department of Foreign Affairs. "The conclusions are that if the appropriate paperwork had been compiled when Cascarino was first capped in 1985. Tony would have been granted a "There is no evidence on record that Tony was ever refused

Now the FAI are satisfied that Cascarino was always eligible to play for his country."

Tiger Cup kicks off today

The fans are tipping Vietnam but battle-hardened Thailand, buoyed by the return of their star striker, are most pundits' pick to lift this year's Tiger Cup.

gapore, surprise champions in muang to the national fold. Vietnam two years ago: taking [on minnows Cambodia in the first Group B clash, reports are also in Group B. The other first round group involves hosts

Thailand, Indonesia, the Philippines and Myanmar with matches played in the northern city of Chiang Mai. The top two teams in each group advance to semi-finals in Bangkok. The final takes place on November 18.

In Vietnam, Tiger Cup fever is running so high that extra police have been put on standby to prevent rowdy scenes during post-match celebrations.

The Vietnamese press has seized on an Internet poll on the organiser's web site (www.tigerbeer.com/tigercup/ home.html) to whip up a wave of optimism about their squad's chances of lifting the trophy for the first time. Latest voting on Saturday had 32 per cent of voters tipping Vietnam to win against 28 Final percent for Thailand, the trophy Cup in 1996. go into the tournament in tur- was badly missed in the Asian Cup opener, but said realistimoil following the withdrawal of Cup. when poor finishing cost cally "our aim here is to beat two key players and the news the Thais a quarterfinal place. that Austrian coach Alfred Riedl is to be sacked after the tour- emerged with credit after se- above Cambodia.

winners in the inaugural Tiger

nament, regardless of its out- curing draws with Iran and Riedl paid the price for a public clash with the commu- better team for being in Lebanist state's football bosses.

The Vietnamese however Withe, said. face a formidable obstacle in the shape of a Thai squad that surpassed expectations in last South East Asia's premier month's Asian Cup finals and football tournament kicks off in has been given a last-minute the southern beach resort of boost by the return of top Songkhla on Sunday with Sin- striker Kiatisak "Zico" Sena-

FIXTURES

Group A (All matches in Chiang Mai) Vietnam, Malaysia and Laos 6 Nov: Indonesia vs Philip-Thailand vs Myanmar Myanmar vs Philip-

> 10 Nov: Thailand vs Indonesia 12 Nov: Myanmar vs Indonesia 12 Nov: Philippines vs Thai-

Group B (All matches in Songkhla) 5 Nov: Singapore vs Cambo-

5 Nov: Vietnam vs Malaysia Laos vs Malaysia Cambodia vs Vietnam Malaysia vs Cambodia 9 Nov: Singapore vs Laos 11 Nov: Cambodia vs Laos 11 Nov: Vietnam vs Singapore

13 Nov: Malaysia vs Singapore Semifinals (Bangkok) 16 Nov: 1st A vs. 2nd B 16 Nov: 1st B vs. 2nd A Third place playoff 18 Nov. Bangkok

18 Nov. Bangkok Kiatisak, currently with Joachim Fickert would love to But the talented Vietnamese Huddersfield Town in England. claim Singapore's scalp in the

Monaco left limping again PARIS. Nov 4: Sidney Govou picked up the along the turf to smother the night with two fine headed goals, one in each stood transfixed in the Monaco link all evening. half, four days before the two goal. sides face crucial Champions League ties, reports AFP.

French First Division

Lyon, with a game in hand. join the struggling French League champions on 19 points and can look forward to their home tie against Olympiakos in the Champions League Tues-

Monaco, who have now lost. five must win in Scotland against Rangers on Tuesday if they are to enjoy any success

Lyon beat chani- ball inside the Monaco box, his ball. pions Monaco 2-0 lofted cross met by Pierre Laistadium on Friday yards out found the bottom looked forlorn as he and his corner as Stephane Porato strike partner Simone failed to > almost equalised when Marco break, as busy Monaco again Simone's back heel from three enjoyed the lion's share of posvards out hit the post before session. being lofted away.

> went close with a series of free your. Coach Claude Puel took shot that slithered under his twice. body. With Monaco's Pablo

With playmaker Marcelo at the Louis II gle's towering header eight Gallardo sidelined. Nonda again

> Lyon sat back in the second Two minutes later Monaco half, content to play on the

> On the hour the game Before half time Monaco seemed to turn in Lyon's fabefore Ousmane Dabo could

> > The lanky international first elles ran into the box again. this time his fierce shot balooning over the bar off Porato's backside. Steve Marlet killed the match on 82. his wicked header

Marlet rose unchallenged ten vards out, in a very similar position from which Laigle bagged the opener, his vicious header zipping past the helpless Porato NYON, Switzerland. Nov 4: The governing body of European football. UEFA. has rejected appeals by Romanian club FC Ceahlaul Piatra Neamt and of Romanian referee Florin Chivulete against a year's suspension from all European competition. UEFA announced. reports AFP.

Chivulte and the first division side were banned after the French referees due to officiate the club's home Intertoto tie the match.

The appeal committee had Thursday concluded that the French referees were "indeed offered female company at the end of dinner on the eve of the,

The UEFA appeals body thus upheld the decision by UEFA's disciplinary commission to suspend both the club and Chivulete on October 6 for a year.

Marseille chief steps down

4: Marseille president Yves Marchand unexpectedly announced his resignation from the struggling French First Division club here on Thursday.

In his statement Marchand said he was worn out by what he called the hypocrisy of those who call for a clean-out without putting their own names forward on the list of those who president in June 1999 and is the first casualty of a power struggle that has been unfolding at the club over the last sportswear giant Adidas.

and one scaped relegation on ture. However Marchand was After the departure of several including

Frenchmen Christophe Dugarry, Laurent Blanc, Robert Pires, Italian Fabrizio Ravenelli and Spaniard Ivan De La Pena. and selling their two best voungsters to bitter rivals Paris suitable replacements.

unternationals

Marchand, a former director of internal squabbling in the management structure. Dreyfus responded by calling goal dath range on the last day not expected to be on the departure list.

The club's sporting manager Eric Di Meco, a former French international and Marselle player, and sporting director Marcel Dib sided against Marchand in the internal battle and were chief candidates for restar Eric Cantona, who spent two brief and stormy periods with Marseille a decade ago. was widely tipped to step into the sporting director role.

Marchand's resignation comes as a major shock to those close to the club. "Over the next few days I shall fulfil my duties with one regret, the lack of good results befitting a club of this size. said Marchand before offering a parting shot at unnamed enemies - those who "looked after their own self serving interests

Serie A set for revolution legitimately working in Italy, the ruling will be to the detri-

The threat of legal action against the Italian Football Federation (FIGC) by Italian Serie A side AC Milan Friday looks set to herald a revolution in the mestic league, reports AFP.

world's most prestigious do-

The San Siro giants moved swiftly to capitalise on a separate court decision Thursday that ruled discrimination against non-European Union players is illegal by threatening their own action unless the FIGC waived their own rules until yesterday had been Carraro, speaking before Galthat allow a maximum of three closed." non-EU players to be fielded delegate Adriano Galliani sent a and locally raised talent. letter countersigned by his five non-EU players - Ukrainian Lilian Thuram - a member of Serginho - which threatened immediate legal action if the FIGC did not comply promptly. The letter was written less than 24 hours after a Reggio Emilia court ruled against a Football cannot remain beban on non-EU players in Serie hind. C after a test case brought by Reggiana's Nigerian player Ikpe Prince Ekong.

Ekong could not play for his club after they were relegated from Serie B and had to be tarmed out to Slovenia and Mexico on loan.

That opened the door for a challenge by Serie A and Serie B players to the less stringent limits in those divisions and AC Milan have duly taken up the The Reggio Emilia court, citing Italian laws that prevent discrimination between nationals and non-nationals who are tailer Nike to conclude football's most lucrative sponsorship and merchandise deal ever, worth 302.9 million pounds (438.5 million dollars. 509 million eu-current English champion unveiled a deal that will make it even wealthier, and give Nike a broad range of exclusive rights at the club for 13 years from

In return for the cash, which

The world's richest club and ros), reports AFP.

August 2002.

LONDON, Nov 4

Leading English

football club Manchester United teamed up Friday

with US sports re-ruled in the player's favour. The Reggio Emilia verdict may have perturbed many play- plethora of players who are not ers but the clubs - as AC Mi- at the same level as our younglan's action shows - have sters but are getting to play jumped at the new opportuni- solely because they are foreignties in the transfer market.

Speaking before AC Milan's lieved it could stabilise the erns Serie A and B. hinted that transfer market: "The sentence - if applied to change when he appealed to generally - could be a certain the Italian Football Federation calming agent on prices. The (FIGC) to examine the legal doors are opened to deals that

But however favourable the "The FIGC must now evaluate and a cap of five in an entire ruling appears on transfer affairs, a wedge may have been The club's administrative driven between foreign players are. Before the political ramifi-Parma's French full-back be clarified." Andriv Shevchenko. Croatian the World Cup winning and Zvovnímír Boban and Brazilian Euro 2000 winning sides trio Dida. Roque Junior and came down firmly on the side of He told his club website: "The world is moving towards globalisation. Sooner or later all barriers must come down Conversely, in an era when there has been an increasing backlash in Italy at the ten- and the man he succeeded at dency of clubs to purchase foreign talent at the expense of local players. Thuram's Italian teammate, Diego Fuser feels clearly dismayed. He said: "If this ruling goes through it would be absolutely crazy! This will help neither Italian football nor foreigners. "With an entirely free market

there will be no reason for clubs to invest in the youth sector." The Italian Footballers' Union (AlC), while stressing its commitment to protecting all its members, echoed Fuser's fears MU-Nike mega partnership > cost of player salaries. Nike will become the club's exclusive official sponsor and kit supplier and get the rights to market and sell club merchandise. "It's certainly the biggest deal of its kind in British football and is thought to be the will help United strengthen its squad and cover the mounting biggest in the world," said a tions. spokesman for Manchester "It will help Manchester United in a number of areas, but there is also the fact that you are putting one very big brand together with another big brand with global reach," the spokesman told AFP.

Nike will pay 133.4 million pounds for the first six years of the deal, and 302.9 million pounds over the entire 13-year But the amounts will be reduced if Manchester United does not finish in the top half of the Premiership or does not ports or naturalisation papers.

compete in European competi-The sportswear giant and the English Premiership champions also committed to launch a youth development programme to bring on young footballers. Nike will pay for the one-million-pound annual cost of the programme, Manchester

United said.

There have been several recent instances of non-EU players being found to have been registered as Europeans only for subsequent investigations to reveal they bore false EU pass-

adopted

passport. a permanent Irish passport. The player did seek a passport then in 1996 and this was granted.

> Marseille, fifth from bottom, have been in a downward spiral in auditors who quickly calcusince losing to Lazio in the lated redundancy payments for kicks, the best of which came off Francisco Da Costa, which from Shabani Nonda just before had picked up a booking, and

Gregory Coupet failed to Settle into the defence Tony hold the 22-year-old's powerful Warielles could have scored The match came to life after Conteras bearing down on him fired wide after Porato dropped only four minutes when Lyon's Coupet did well to scramble a cross and a minute later Vari-making it 2-0 for the visitors. into the bottom corner.

UEFA rejects 'em both against Austria Vienna on July 15 were supposedly offered prostitutes on the eve before match"

Champions League last season the entire management sinic-MARSEILLE. Nov reports AFP.

the return of a sporting spirit.

with uncontrolled passions".

dundancy. Saint Germain, the mediterranean giants failed to bring in Former Manchster United Internal strife errupted some weeks ago when former club should leave. president Pierre Dubiton chal-Marchand took over as lenged Robert Louis Drevfus. the clubs top shareholder who is the boss of Adidas, with investing in the club or quitting. Dreyfus has invested around 90 million dollars in the club in "I hope my departure marks recent years and was asked last week by the mayor of Marseille. the foundations are there," said Jean Claude Dubiton, to settle

