JS body approves Admiralty Court Bill 2000

The Parliamentary Standing Committee on Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Ministry yesterday approved the Admiralty Court Bill 2000 updating old laws on settling water-transport disputes, reports UNB.

With its Chairman Suranjit Sengupta in chair, the parliamentary watchdog discussed in details the Arbitration Bill 1999 as well as the Admiralty Court

Bill 2000. The meeting was informed that some clauses of the Admiralty Act 1840, Admiralty Court Act 1861 and Court of Admiralty Act 1891 were inadequate to meet demands of present times.

"With the increase in the transportation of cargoes by waterways investors do not feel encouraged to invest under the existing laws."
