Sayed brands Nov 7 as counter-revolution day

State Minister for Information Prof. Abu Sayeed yesterday branded November 7 as a day of counter-revolution which was led by Ziaur Rahman in a bid to legitimise martial law regimes permanently in the country, reports BSS.

"What happened on November 7, 1975 was never a revolution. It was rather a counter-revolution which trampled people's democratic rights and their hopes and aspirations were dashed," he said while speaking as the chief guest at a memorial meeting held for four slain officials of Bangladesh.

"Declare Nov 7

a govt holiday"

Shaheed Zia Smriti Sangsad, Narayanganj unit held a discussion meeting to mark November 7 at its office premises at Narayanganj, says a press release.

The unit president Md Shahidul Islam (Ripon) presided over the meeting.

Chief adviser to the Sangsad Dr Mirza A Sobhan while addressing the meeting demanded that November 7 be declared a government holiday.

Among others, the vice-president of the sangsad Md Nurul Alam, general secretary Ahsan Hossain Mukul, joint secretary SM Rahman, Abdur Rahim and Md Jalal Hossain also addressed the meeting.

The Guest Speaker Md Quamrur-Zaman a sports writer will speak on "Sunday Olympic Games-2000."

All members have been requested to attend in time.

Television (BTV) at BTV Bhawan at Rampura.

Following the November 7, 1975 incidents four BTV officials were picked up and later killed by misguided members of the Army. The victims were: Monirul Alam, Akmal Khan, Firoj Quaiyum and AFM Siddique.

Chaired by BTV Director General Syed Salahuddin Zaki, the function was also addressed by Deputy Minister for Local Government Saber Hossain Chowdhury, AKM Rahamatullah, MP, Shahin Monwar Hossain, MP, and Acting Secretary of the Ministry of Information MI Chowdhury.

The state minister emphatically said that the trial of the killers of the four BTV officials will be held on this soil.

Prof. Sayeed said November 7 was against the spirit of the War of Liberation. The day, he said, should be described as the day of killing, coup and conspiracy.

Hundreds of innocent officers and soldiers were killed by Zia in the name of so-called November 7 revolution," he said adding that anti-liberation forces were also allowed to do politics in the country through the counter-revolution.

Citing yesterday's statement of BNP chief Begum Zia where she described November 7 as the second birthday of the nation, Prof. Sayeed said such comment only suits a person like Begum Zia who has changed the date of her birthday twice and it would not be surprising if she now opt for changing her birthday date again.

Sayed said her birthday according to certificate is September 5 which she changed to August 15, the National Mourning Day and now perhaps she will change it to November 7.

Later, a munajat was offered for the peace of the departed souls of the BTV officials killed following the November 7 incidents.

Maternal morbidity, mortality high among newly-wed adolescents

Maternal morbidity and mortality are high among newly wed adolescents of the country as 70 per cent of them are unable to use contraceptive despite their desire for 2-child family, reports UNB.

Newly married adolescents in Bangladesh face a number of barriers in getting reproductive health services. They are often expected to demonstrate their fertility shortly after marriage, and often receive challenges to their mobility from the house, should they wish to seek reproductive health services, said a report of Pathfinder International yesterday prior to holding a dissemination seminar.

According to the survey, among over 10 million adolescents between 15 and 19 years, 50 per cent female adolescents are married and the annual growth rate of this group is 4.3 per cent compared to 1.7 per cent of the total population.

The use of contraceptive methods among the newly wed adolescents is 30 per cent, about half of the national average, which left the adolescent mothers at high risk of maternal morbidity and mortality.

Two out of three newly weds desire a 2-child family and the unmet need for contraception in this group is more than 22 per cent.

Pathfinder International gathered the findings while implementing two programmes on adolescents and newly weds in rural Bangladesh recently under its Rural Service Delivery Programme (RSDP).

The dissemination seminar to be held at Samarkand Restaurant at 11 am today will share the evaluations of Pathfinder Newly-wed Strategy and RSDP-BRAC's Adolescent Family Life Education Programme in order to address the health and information needs of the young newly wed couples.

That November 7 be declared a government holiday.

Among others, the vice-president of the sangsad Md Nurul Alam, general secretary Ahsan Hossain Mukul, joint secretary SM Rahman, Abdur Rahim and Md Jalal Hossain also addressed the meeting.
