

Thai DPM meets PM

The visiting Deputy Prime Minister (DPM) of Thailand Dr Supachai Panitchpakdi yesterday called on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her official residence Ganobhaban, reports BSS.

During the meeting, Dr Panitchpakdi stressed the need for strengthening trade relations, particularly in the field of agriculture, between the two countries.

The Thai deputy prime minister, who came here to attend the plenary session of ICC Asia Conference, said that the cooperation between Bangladesh, India, Myanmar, Sri Lanka and Thailand Economic Cooperation (BIMSTEC) and Association of South-East Asian Nations (ASEAN) could improve the region to a great extent.

Khaleda greets Hillary

Opposition leader Begum Khaleda Zia has felicitated Hillary Clinton for her historic victory in the US Senate election, reports UNB.

In a message yesterday she said, "I was truly delighted over your historic electoral victory as a sitting First Lady to be elected to the US Senate. Your victory of course is a fitting tribute to your own recognised qualities of leadership, especially your courage, perseverance and determination."

Jarina wants her money back

By Staff Correspondent
Jarina Khatun, whose money was stolen from the luggage at Zia International Airport (ZIA) on November 5 upon her arrival from Abu Dhabi, has expressed determination not to leave Dhaka without recovering her hard-earned money.

She was speaking at a meeting on Wednesday organised by the Welfare Association of Repatriated Bangladesh Employees (WARBE) at its office in the city, said a press release.

Giving a brief description of her ordeal at ZIA, Jarina said she has become a pauper after some Tk 80,000, that she had earned abroad, was stolen. She is yet to get any compensation from the authorities concerned.

WARBE executive vice chairman Syed Saiful Haq Asif chaired the meeting attended by the representatives of the International Organisation for Migration (IMO), International Labour Organisation (ILO), Refugee and Migratory Movements Research (RMMRU), Odhakar, Bangladesh Migrant Centre (BMC), and South Asian Forum for Human Rights (SAFHR).

Meanwhile, the meeting also discussed a series of programmes to be organised in November and December. The programmes include observance of 'International Day of Migration' on December 18.

NDC team calls on President

An 18-member delegation of the ongoing second National Defence College (NDC) course made a courtesy call on President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed at Bangabhaban yesterday, reports BSS.

Commandant Major General Hasan Mashud Chowdhury led the delegation.

The ongoing second one-year NDC course started on 16 January this year with 18 members of which nine from Army, two from Navy, three from Air Force and four from Civil Services.

President Shahabuddin, who is the Supreme Commander of the armed forces, thanked the participants for successfully completing the NDC course. He said that the course will help develop their professional efficiency and enable them to perform their assigned duty properly.

The President appreciated the role of the commandant and the directing staff in conducting the course efficiently. Five directing staff of the college were also present.
