Beguiling Bach at Osmani

Young German musicians play classical western music

By Fayza Haq

AT Osmani Memorial Hall this evening begins the classical music concert of pieces by JS Bach and S. Gaudin performed by Stefan Hussong and Julius Berger.

Born in November '62 at Kollerbach, Germany, Stefan Hussong learnt under eugen sity of Cincinnati. He also participated in a Masters course run by Mstislav Rostropovich. Less than 30 years, Berger was appointed a professor at the Musikhochschule in Wuerzburg, and since then has been a professor both at the Saarbruecken Musikhochschule and also the Johannes-Gutenberg University Mainz. He also taught at the International Summer Academy accordion player Elsbeth Moser. Being given manuscripts by Paul Sacher foundation, she made up her mind to stay there. She settled town at Appen, near Hamburg. In the 70s, along with a fellow-composer, Viktor Suslin, who lives close by, she reaffirmed the "Astrova" improvisation group, which played at Moscow. This was at first with V. Arltomov and later with Alexander Suslin.

Born in 31 at Chistopol in the Tatar Republic, Sofia Gubaidulina got her first training as a composer and pianist at Kazan and then at Moscow, under N. Peiko and V. Shebalin. Till the time she moved to Germany, she worked as a freelance composer, earning money by writing music. The Soviet officials were not only skeptical about her music but found it offensive. It was only after the "Perestroika" that Sofia Gubaidulina, who was already acclaimed in the west, got attention in her own country. However, in '89 she was named as "A Soviet artist of merit".

Her other claim to fame are prizes at a Roman composition competition in '75, the Prince Pierre de Monaco foundation composition prize in '87 the Tschannun, Hugo Noth, Joseph Marcello and Mayumi Miyata at the Universities of Trosingen (Germany), Tornoto (Canada) and Tokyo (Japan). He was a visiting professor at the Sibelius Academy Helsinki in '89 and since '90 he is the professor for accordion and chamber at the Wuerzburg conservatory and since '93 he has been a professor at the International Summer Academy of Mozarteum Salzburg.

Julius Berger, born in '54, learnt under witer Reichardt and Fritz Kiskalt at the Musikhochschule in Munich. Later he studied with Antonio Janigro at Salzburg's Mozarteum, and with Zara Nelsova at the univerat Salzburg's Mozarteum.

As regards the cello sonatas of JS Bach presented today, their quality is close to that of the French. "Suite d'cordable" requires the tuning of the A string down to G. For the last there is the need of a five-stringed instrument, with an E string above the A. Bach used the "viola pomposa" in the early years. In Bach we bet "sonata for clavier and violin" and "sonata for clavier and flute". By a sonata for violin and clavier Bach means a composition in which the clavier only supplies the "bass and the figured bass".

As regards the composer Sofia Gubaidulina, she received a 12 month grant from the Lower Saxony in '90 with the help of the Koussevitsky prize in '90, and the Heidelberg women composers award in '91. She is regarded as the most important woman composer.

World's November Special

Watch That 70's Show, World's Wildest Police Video, Martial Law, First Wave and many other serials on Star World

By Cultural Correspondent

THIS November Star World has some old and some new series lined up. Here are some snaps:

That '70s Show

Monday, Nov 13 at 10:00 pm
Retro-hip comedy series, THAT '70S SHOW, begins its smash second season on STAR World. The show follows a group of teenage friends who are coming of age and coming to terms with hormones, parents and the bizarrely changing America of the late 1970s. These teens' outsider views give us hilarious and illuminating insights into the strange new world of adulthood, at a strange time.

World's Wildest Police Video

Thursday, Nov 16 at 10:00 PM
Be amazed by some of the most amazing scenes captured on video from police teams around the world. From the insanity of criminal behaviour to the determination of extraordinary officers, WORLD'S WILDEST POLICE VIDEOS brings action and suspense, never before seen outside the law enforcement community.

WORLD'S WILDEST POLICE VIDEOS the hit series focuses on the most extreme and extraordinary footage possible of real crime in progress caught from every possible angle. Video that comes from all over the world - from new helicopters to patrol car dashcams, from ordinary citizens to high-tech surveillance,

Martial Law

Thursday, Nov 16 at 12:00 AM
Starring Sammo Hung, a celebrated Hong Kong Kung Fu star, Martial Law is a real action-packed police drama with martial art and explosive fight. Sammo Law (Sammo Hung) is Los Angeles' newest and toughest law enforcer. A legendary "supercop" from Shanghai, Law joins forces with the Los Angeles Police Department to wage a war on crime. Built like a tank, and just as lethal, Law's jaw-dropping skills as a crime fighter won over his new boss, captain Benjamin Winship (Tom Wright) and his initially skeptical partners, detectives Louis Malone (Louis Mandylor) and Dana Doyle (Tammy Lauren). Assisted by Grace Chen (Kelly Hu), Sammo's protégé and a former Chinese policewoman, this team of heroes is ready to enforce Martial Law.

Hercules: The legendary Journeys (Series 6)

Saturday, Nov 18 at 4:00 pm
From acclaimed action filmmakers Sam Raimi and Rob Tapert, HERCULES: THE LEGENDARY JOURNEYS returns to STAR World with its fifth season. Kevin Sorbo stars as the handsome and heroic half-man, half-god hero and his adventures in a land a long time before ancient Greece and Rome, in a fantastic mythical world created through insurmountable odds.

Travelling from town to town, tracking clues while fearing the worst, Cade is helped by crazy Eddy Nambulous (Rob LaBelle), a quirky conspiracy theorist and editor of an Internet magazine.

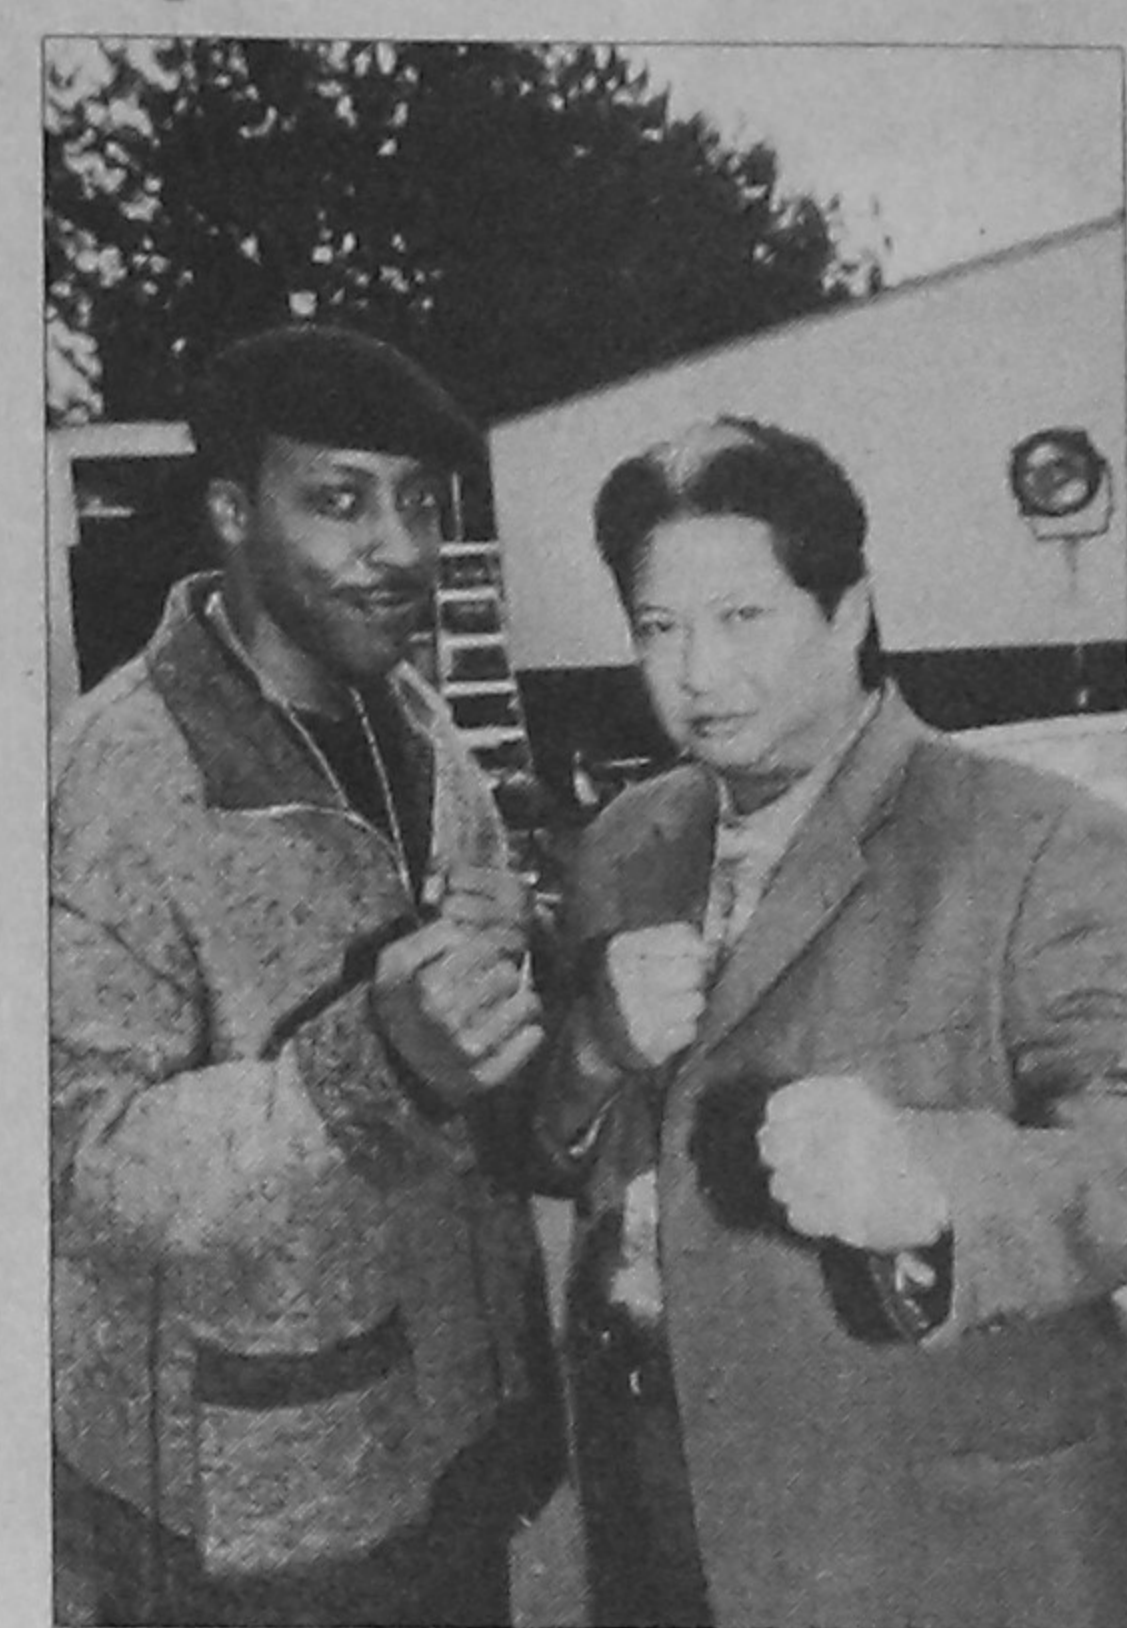

The Simpsons (Series 9)

Sunday, Nov 19 at 5:00 pm
This Emmy award-winning animated series features the quarrelsome, yet homely "blue collar" clan with bulging eyes and grotesque overbites! Homer, Marge, Bart Lisa and Maggie, residents in the nuclear power plant community of Springfield, continue to dish the laughs with Star World. Starring John Lithgow as the High Commander of an investigative team sent to Earth on a mission to learn everything about humans and their so-called advanced civilization. This season as the characters learn more of what it means to be human, the story line takes some intriguing twists and turns. Early on, Dr. Albright (Jane Curtin) is promoted to Dean of the University, making her Dick's new boss. Also, Sally takes a big step in understanding a human woman's perspective as she consummates her relationship with Officer Don (Wayne Knight).

Hercules on 18-11-2000 at 4:00p.m

Martial Law on 16-11-2000 at 8:00p.m.

The X-Files (Series 6)

Sunday, Nov 19 at 10:30 PM

THE X-FILES winner of the 1995 and 1997 Golden Globe Award for Best Drama Series, and a four-time Emmy award nominee for Outstanding Drama Series, returns for its sixth season following the box-office success of the first feature film based on the series. Celebrated by critics in the US since its premiere and a consistent ratings winner on television, THE X-FILES has also become an international phenomenon.

First Wave

Saturday Nov 18 at 11:00 pm
From Oscar-winner Francis Ford Coppola's American Zoetrope Television, and Chris Brancato, the creator of Hoodlum and a writer for The X-Files and The Outer Limits, comes television's most anticipated sci-fi adventure First Wave. Cade Foster (Sebastian Spence The X-Files), is the one man left to fight the alien conspiracy against their outrageous antics, representing "the normal American family in all its beauty and all its horror" to quote Executive Producer James L. Brooks. Entering into the ninth season, The Simpsons brings loads of hilarious laughs to viewers!

3rd Rock from the Sun (Series 4)

Sunday, Nov 19 at 5:30 PM

Critically-acclaimed comedy series, 3RD ROCK FROM THE SUN enters its fourth season on

PICK OF THE DAY

Batman & Robin

today at 6 in the evening

Join the fearless capped crusaders, Batman & Robin, as the battle to save Gotham City from the coolest - and cruellest - villain yet, Mr. Freeze. Batman (George Clooney) and Robin (Chris O'Donnell) must stop the evil Mr. Freeze (Arnold Schwarzenegger) from putting the ice on Gotham City. But when Mr. Freeze teams up with the toxic Poison Ivy (Uma Thurman) to carry out his plan, the end appears near for the city and the dynamic duo. But with the arrival of Batgirl (Alicia Silverstone) the dynamic duo becomes a transcendent trio who might just stand a chance against the cold and calculating Freeze. This fourth episode of the blockbuster theatrical series contains spectacular action-packed adventure and super-cool effects. Will the capped trio be able to stop Mr. Freeze and Poison Ivy? Tune into your favorite "Bat Channel", HBO, to find out.
