Akhi killing BCL submits memo to DMP Commissioner

By Staff Correspondent
Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) yesterday submitted a memorandum to the Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP) Commissioner demanding immediate arrest and punishment of all the killers of BCL leader Akkasur Rahman Akhi.
Leaders and activists of BCL, the student front of ruling Awami League, brought out a procession on Dhaka University campus at 12 noon and marched towards the office of DMP Commissioner.

The BCL activists however failed to lay siege to the DMP Commissioner's office and held a rally at Shabbagh crossing after police intercepted them there at about 12.30 pm. Police however allowed a small delegation to the DMP Commissioner's office to submit the memorandum.

BCL also organised a press conference at the Madhu's Canteen yesterday demanding 'impartial' investigation into the killing and immediate punishment of the killers. BCL president Bahadur Bepari and general secretary Ajay Kar Khokon were present among others.

As part of seven-day protest programme, BCL will also hold a protest rally at the Central Shaheed Minar yesterday and will lay siege Home Ministry tomorrow and submit a memorandum to the Home Ministry to press their demands.

Armed goons shot and killed Akhi, general secretary of Dhaka city (North) Unit BCL and vice president of Titumir College Students' Union at Gulshan-2 in the city Thursday night over controlling a club in Badda area.

Writers invited to submit play for competition

BBC World Service and the British Council will launch the Second Joint International Playwriting Competition 2001 later this month, reports UNB.
Writers are invited to submit an original radio play of about 60 minutes duration, written in English, to the BBC by April 30, 2001.

The results of the competition will be announced on September 30, 2001.
The winner of the competition will receive a first prize of 2500 pound sterling and a trip to London to hear his or her play recorded for BBC World Service, said a press release yesterday.

Regional winners from the Americas, Europe, Africa and the Middle East, South Asia and the former Soviet Union, Asia and the Pacific will each receive a short wave radio.

Full details and the entry forms can be obtained from the British Council Bangladesh and the BBC World Service Drama, London or by emailing at: playoftheweek@bbc.co.uk

Clash on campus Showcause on 7 JU students

From JU Correspondent
SAVAR, Nov 14: The Jahangirnagar University Authorities yesterday served Showcause notices on seven students of Al Beruni Hall for their alleged involvement in Sunday's incident on the campus.

They are Jewel of History Department, Ferdous of Mathematics Department, Pal-lab, Sujon and Zahid of Environment and Geography Department and Zakir of Drama Department.
They have been asked to reply by November 16.

At least eight people were injured in a series of clashes between pro and anti-government students activists on the campus on Sunday.

Five rooms at the Al Beruni Hall were ransacked and one of those was also set afire during the clashes between the activists of JCD and BCL.
