BRAC to help flood-affected SSC examinees

BRAC has decided to help the SSC examinees who were affected by the recent floods in western and southwestern region by providing loans to facilitate payment of their examination fees, says a press release.

The loan for a period of one year and a half will be without any service charge. The loan amount will be disbursed next week through their respective high schools and payable in installments beginning July next year.

BRAC has already contacted 242 high schools in the affected areas of Sattura, Jessore, Jhenaidah, Kustia, Chuadanga and Chapai Nawabganj districts and its field staff are now conducting a survey to identify the actual number of such students.

Book on Bangabandhu published in London

"Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the Founding Father of Bangladesh" — a book on the life and works of Father of the Nation — was released in British market on Friday following a publication ceremony at the British House of Commons, a message received in city yesterday said, reports BSS.

British lawmaker Oona King organised the publication ceremony at the British Parliament joined by visiting Bangladesh Commerce Minister Abdul Jalil, president of British Liberal Democratic Party Lord Dholakia, Bangabandhu's personal friend Lord Peter Shore, Bangladesh High Commissioner Mahmud Ali, Director of International Centre for Sheikh Mujib Studies D. Mepriel, secretary of Bangabandhu Parishad Europe Branch Dr Zahidul Hassan, among others.

International Centre for Sheikh Mujib Studies published the research-oriented book as a symbol of independence leaders of the third world countries.

The speakers at the function described Bangabandhu a leader above any political party who would remain as a source of inspiration to all independent loving people across the world.

Int'l Day for Elimination of Violence against Women today

International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women will be observed in the country today, reports UNB.

The day is being observed for the first time across the world after the UN member states adopted the declaration on the Elimination of Violence against Women.

It focuses fight against gender-based violence in all its forms like domestic violence, rape, sexual harassment, torture and abuse of women prisoners or violence against women in armed conflicts.

UN Secretary General Kofi Annan has given a message marking the day. He called upon all to raise public awareness of this global scourge in all its forms and to ensure that wherever it occurs it will be met with global condemnation.

On the occasion, various women organisations have drawn up various programmes.

Nari Pakkha will hold a rally at the Central Shaheed Minar at 3 pm, bring out a procession from Shaheed Minar and hold a cultural function.
