LONDON, Nov 30: English county Kent are being forced to look for another overseas import following confirmation that India batsman Rahul Dravid will not be returning next season, reports AFP.

Dravid made his decision due to India's busy international calendar and admitted: "I'm obviously very disappointed not to be able to return." The proposed schedule for the Indian team makes it impossible for me to participate in county cricket.

"I've enjoyed every minute of my time with Kent and am very grateful for all the support I've received."

Matthew Fleming, reappointed Kent captain for a third year running recently, added: "Rahul made an outstanding contribution to the team both on and off the field."

Perth Test starts today

The onus lies with Black?

PERTH, Nov 30: Marlon Black, the giant powerhouse from Trinidad, looms as a major obstacle to Australia as they attempt to create cricket history in the second Test starting at the WACA Ground here on Friday, reports AFP.

Black, 25, the major success story of the West Indies' humiliating loss to Australia in the first Test in Brisbane last weekend, is braced for a furious assault on the home team on a ground where generations of Caribbean fast bowlers have been too good for Australian batsmen.

While Australia's Brett Lee sets his sights on breaking the world fast bowling record, Black will aim to maintain a proud West Indies tradition of superiority over Australian batting in Perth.

Black has already shown his liking for the fast, bouncy pitch, snatching five wickets against Western Australia three weeks ago before confirming his menace with four big scalps in the Brisbane Test — his first.

Australia have arrived in Perth with their sights set firmly on a world record 12th successive Test victory.

That would better the current best sequence of 11 successive wins, shared by the home country and the West Indies team of the mid 1980s under the baton of Clive Lloyd.

Australian captain Steve Waugh warned his players not to take anything for granted after the Brisbane triumph.

"I have no doubt their four fast bowlers will be a handful in Perth," he said. "We are certainly going to have to bat well."

Black is the one player who could fire the tourists, who have lost 14 of their last 16 away Tests.

Veteran 38-year-old pace-man Courtney Walsh managed just one wicket from 31.4 overs in Brisbane. But he may be able to provide more pep on a bowler-friendly pitch.

Walsh was among the West Indies' match-winners the last time he played in Perth, seizing a second innings 5-74 in a 10-wicket Test win almost four years ago.

Another West Indies' trump card, little left-handed batsman Brian Lara, also has happy memories of Perth, where he stroked a velvet 132 in the 1997 win.

They have won all five previous Tests they have played at the WACA Ground in the past quarter century — and they have crushed the opposition just as ruthlessly as they were battered by Australia last weekend. Even in those series in which Australia proved overall masters — for example, in 1975-76 and 1996-97 — the Caribbean men have found Perth a happy haven where generations of fast bowlers from Andy Roberts to Curtly Ambrose have proved match-winners.

Meanwhile, leg-spinner Stuart MacGill beat paceman Andy Bichel to the fourth specialist bowling position in the Australian side.

The West Indies dropped out-of-form, middle-order batsman, Ramnaresh Sarwan, who topped the averages during the side's recent England tour.

Sarwan, who made two ducks in last weekend's first Test in Brisbane, lost his place to 24-year-old Jamaican left-hander Wavell Hinds.

Team officials announced Thursday the Australian attack would comprise speedsters Glenn McGrath, Brett Lee and Jason Gillespie, supported by MacGill.

It will be MacGill's first Test on the WACA ground, where he learned his senior cricket before transferring to New South Wales five years ago.

Bichel, who along with MacGill played in the first Test in Brisbane last weekend, has been relegated to 12th man duties.

Statistics on Test matches between Australia and the West Indies at the WACA Ground, ahead of the second Test starting in Perth Friday:

1974-75: West Indies won by an innings and 87 runs.
