Metropolitan Govt urged to repeal Vested Property Act

CHITTAGONG, Dec 10: Speakers at a seminar in the city yesterday underscored the need for immediate repeal of Vested Property Act and eighth amendment to the Constitution for establishing a stable democratic system, reports BSS.

"The two laws must be repealed for attaining confidence of the minorities and enriching democratic culture in the country," they observed.

The speakers urged the leaders of the majority community to join the movement for solving minorities' problems and forging mutual faith and confidence.

Bangladesh Hindu-Buddha-

Christian Oikya Parishad, Chittagong chapter in observance of World Human Rights Day organised the seminar on "Charter of Human Rights and Minorities of Bangladesh" at District Council Auditorium.

Former Vice-Chancellor of Chittagong University (CU) Prof. Alangir Mohammad Sirajuddin was the chief guest at the seminar while journalist Abul Momem, Prof. Fasihul Alam, Prof. Tapan Jyoti Barua and Prof. Ranjit Dey of CU took part in the discussion. Binode Bharti Chowdhury, an anti-British movement veteran, presided over the seminar.

A parliamentary sub-committee on Labour and Employment Ministry in a meeting yesterday requested the garment owners to disburse Eid bonus among the workers by December 20, reports UNB.

Convenor of the sub-committee Shahjahan Khan presided over the meeting while Noor Mohammad, MP, and Alamgir Haider Khan, MP, were present, a Parliament Secretariat press release.
