'Samunnata Swadhinata' inaugurated

A newly built gate named 'Samunnata Swadhinata' (Heroes Live Forever) with the engravings of names of the armed forces members martyred in the Liberation War was inaugurated at Dhaka Cantonment on the occasion of the Victory Day on Saturday, says an ISPR press release.

The gate was built at the eastern end of the Shaheed Bashir Road adjacent to the Staff Road Railway Crossing on the Airport Road.

Chief of Army Staff Lieutenant General Muhammad Mustafizur Rahman, Bir Bikram, unveiled the plaque at a simple ceremony.

Two get Hasna Hena Qadir memorial award

Tarun Sarkar and Tariqul Haq Tariq of daily Prothom Alo have won Shaheed Java Hasna Hena Qadir Memorial Award for their report on Liberation War, reports UNB.

They wrote a joint report on the present condition of 'Beer-anganas' of 1971 who gave depositions before the Gano Adalat (People's Court).

The report was published in the daily on December 15, 1999.

The award was instituted this year by Shaheed Java Hasna Hena Qadir Memorial Council in collaboration with Dhaka Reporters' Unity. The award comprises Tk 10,000 in cash, a crest and a citation.

US, Russian envoys call on Samad Azad

US Ambassador Mary Ann Peters and Russian Ambassador Nikolay G Shevchenko called on Foreign Minister Abdus Samad Azad at his office yesterday, reports UNB.

While exchanging views with the minister about strengthening cooperation between the member countries in the UN Security Council, the envoys lauded Bangladesh's strong role in the council.

Earlier, outgoing representative of the World Health Organisation (WHO) Dr W Hardjotonojo paid a farewell call on the foreign minister and apprised him of the WHO programmes in Bangladesh.

The minister sought continued cooperation from WHO, said an official handout.

Tk 108cr schemes under health programmes

Twenty schemes involving Taka 108 crore would be included in the Annual Operational Plan for the year 2000-2001 for implementing construction and renovation work in the Health and Family Planning programmes, reports BSS.

The decision was taken at a meeting of the National Steering Committee on the Health and Family Planning programme yesterday. Health and Family Welfare Minister Sheikh Fazlul Karim Salim presided.
