Kibria calls for rehabilitating distressed girls

Finance Minister Shah A M S Kibria yesterday called upon the elites of the society to come forward for rehabilitating the distressed girls by making them self-reliant through imparting various vocational training, reports BSS.

"Rich and conscious section of the society must put their efforts to ensure better future for the socially handicapped girls and women," he said in inaugurating the 'Handicraft Dress Exhibition 2000' at hotel Sheraton.

Kibria said rapid urbanisation and transformation of agriculture-based economy to industrial economy has been creating social stress that adversely affected the vulnerable section of girls, women and children.

Expressing gratitude to the donors and NGOs for working for the betterment of the girls and women, the minister said there are some government establishments for women rehabilitation that are not providing services up to the expectation.

Danish Ambassador Finn Thilsted assured continued cooperation of the Danish government for the rehabilitation of the distressed girls of the society.

Later, the minister inaugurated the handicraft fair organised by the girls of the ACSR.
