Betar licence renewal programme

Betar licence renewal programme for the year 2001 started on December 1 and it will continue till January 31, reports UNB.

Radio set owners have been requested to renew their licences paying Tk 15 to their nearby post offices, said an official handout.

It said licences of temporarily cooperative radio sets and transistors are also renewable, as the use of radio and transistors without licence is a punishable offence.

The radio sets, which are used in shops, hotels and restaurants, will require commercial licence with a fee of Tk 50.

BRAC helps flood-affected SSC examinees

BRAC has disbursed Tk. 16 lakh and 47 thousand as loan to 2353 flood-affected students to enable them to pay their SSC examination fees, says a press release.

The students were unable to pay the fees as they come from poor families severely affected by recent floods in Satkhira, Jessore, Jhenidah, Kushtia, Chuadanga and Chapainawabganj districts.

The loan for a period of one year and a half is without any service charge. The loan is repayable in installments beginning July next year.

Krishak League meeting Dec 21

Bangladesh Krishak League will hold rallies in the upazilas on December 20 and a meeting at the Paltan Maidan on December 21 demanding execution of all the convicts in Bangladesh murder case, reports BSS.

Land Minister Alhaj Rashid Mosharraf and Harun-ur-Rashid Howladar, president and general secretary respectively of the organisation, have urged all to make the programme a success.

Biennial confec of Ctg Press Club

CHITTAGONG, Dec 18: Noted educationist and former vice-chancellor of Chittagong University Prof. Alamgir Mohammad Sirajuddin today said the country's newspapers now have emerged as a most powerful organ of the media to mould public opinion on political and other national issues, reports BSS.

"Democracy has empowered journalists and as such they have to shoulder great responsibility to carry forward the democratic system of the country," he said while inaugurating the biennial conference of Chittagong Press Club (CPC) here today.

Managing Editor of the Daily Azadi and a member of the Board of Directors of BSS M A Malek attended the inaugural function as special guests.

Presided over by president of the press club Abu Sufian, the inaugural session was also addressed by president of Chittagong Union of Journalists (CUJ) M Nasirul Haq, and general secretary of CPC Faruk Iqbal.

The inaugural session was followed by the annual general meeting with senior journalist Kazi Jalul Islam in the chair.

The biennial election of CPC will be held tomorrow.
