Oust-govt movement to be intensified after Eid: Bhuiyan

BNP secretary general Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan said the current movement would be intensified after Eid-ul-Fitr to topple the Awami League government, reports UNB.

"We are now carrying out a movement. After Eid we will force the government out of power through tough agitation. And we hope a democratic government will be established in the country through a free, fair and neutral election," he said.

He made the remarks while addressing an Iftar party hosted by him in honour of journalists at a city hotel.

BNP leaders Barrister Nazmul Huda, MM Rezaul Karim, Haris Chowdhury, Lutfuzzaman Babar, Maj (ret'd) Kamrul Islam, Abdus Salam, Ahmed Musa, Emran Saleh Prince, and Habibur Islam Chowdhury Bobby were present among others.

Tareq Rahman, the eldest son of Ziaur Rahman, was also attended the Iftar party.

Conveying Eid greetings to the journalists, Bhuiyan urged the newsmen to depict the country's real picture through their objective reporting.

The BNP secretary general congratulated the newly elected committee of Jatiya Press Club.

He praised the democratic election of the Press Club and hoped that all institutions would follow democratic election process.

"Not only in parliament, democracy should be practised in every field," said the BNP leader.
