JU celebrates JU Day Jan 12

By JU Correspondent

The Jahangirnagar University (JU) Day will be observed for the first time on January 12. The university authorities have chalked out elaborate programmes to observe the day. Vice-chancellor of the university Prof. Abdul Bayes will inaugurate the programme in front of Life Science Institute premises at 9.00 am. The inauguration will be followed by hoisting of national and university flags. A colourful procession will be brought out from the Life Science Institute, which will parade the campus. Former and present students, teachers, officers, employees and guests will take part in the procession. A reception will be accorded to the former Vice-Chancellors of the university at 10.30 am at the university amphitheatre 'Muktamancha'. The former VCs and guests will, later, take part in commemorating function. The former male students and the present male students will face each other in a friendly football match at the university central playground at 3.00 pm. Former female students will take the present female students in a friendly handball match at the same venue after the football match. The participants of the programme will take part in a tree-plantation programme at 5.00 pm. The JU Day programmes will be rounded up by a cultural functions at 'Muktamancha'. Students, teachers, officers, employees and members of the university Ladies' Club will perform in the cultural function. Jahangirnagar University, was established on January 12, 1971 with 150 students with only four departments - Economics, Geography, Mathematics and Statistics.

Text books not reached students Academic session in govt pry schools in Khulna yet to start

KHULNA, Jan 8: Authorities of the government primary school in the district could not begin the new academic session yet due to lack of textbooks, reports UNB. According to the district Primary Education Office, a total of 1.35 lakh students are enrolled in 1621 government schools in the district and 30,000 students in 94 schools in the city. The source also said that it could not be possible to distribute new books to the students within January 16, as per the promise of the concerned authorities. As the officials also could not inform them when the books will be supplied, the school management have started teaching with the old ones which are also quite inadequate, it added. Another source in the Primary Education Department said that there is a demand of 2,27,482 new textbooks for the primary students. It also said of the total demand, only a consignment of 26,000 English textbooks for class one students was reached here before Eid-ul-Fitr. But, no more consignment has yet been reached. A headmaster of a school in the town told UNB that the students were asked twice to take the new books from the schools as per the instruction of the education office, but they did not receive the books. The academic session in last year also had begun in March in the district as the books could not be supplied within the stipulated time. An official of the Primary Education Office said that this year's academic session would begin with 50 per cent old books if the new ones were not supplied within the current month.

'Revise steps for handing over PDB establishments to PGCB'

Mid-ranking power engineers advised the authorities to revise the steps for handing over PDB establishments to PGCB and corporatising Ashuganj Power Plant under sweeping reforms, reports UNB. The authorities would have to shoulder the consequences if such steps are taken unilaterally and opinion of professionals and workers' bodies is ignored. PDB Diploma Engineers Association said in a letter to the board chairman yesterday. The association identified distribution wing as the main nuisance and felt this very sector should be the priority area for power-sector reform. Instead, all reform programmes are targeted to corporatising and privatising generation plants under pressure from donors and obviously in the interest of multinationals. Any reform initiative in power generation and transmission would prove futile unless adequate internal cash flow can be generated from distribution system, the Association observed.
